Arson damage $90,000

One or more arsonists, who wrote "Burn Pig" on an outside wall, set fire early Wednesday to The Place amusement center, 4055 Pontoon Road, causing extensive damage to the business, which is owned by Pontoon Beach Chief of Police Rosewell Bennett Jr. and Village Trustee Loren Madison. Bennett estimated the 41 pin-ball, football, air hockey and other game machines in the building were valued at $70,000. All were damaged or destroyed.

Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department Chief C. Arnold Rutherford estimated the damage to the building at $20,000 to $25,000. Pontoon Beach police first were alerted to a problem at

The Place at 4:40 a.m. Wednesday when the burglar alarm sounded. A squad car was sent and the officer reported he saw flames above the roof at the northwest corner at that time. He called for the fire department. He then checked to see fire coming out the roof and side doors and flames over a section of ground, as though a flammable liquid had been spilled outside the north west door. The firemen broke into the building and cut vent holes in the roof and back walls, then entered the front with smoke masks and "pushed the fire to the rear," Chief Rutherford said. Election inactivates 'safety supervisors'

The State Park Special Police Unit 33A, reactivated through a $9,500 federal revenue sharing grant from Namewick Township, has been inactivated until after Tuesday's primary election, the Nameki Town Board of Auditors was told during the board's regular meeting Monday night.

Joe Boyer, chief of the special police unit and one of three candidates for the Madison County Board in District 25, told the board the department has been inactivated, effective the night of the meeting, due to allegations that policemen and the police car have been used to aid Boyer's campaign. He said there have been allegations made to county officials that policemen on duty have been seen putting up campaign posters and doing other campaign work, which he said, "I emphatically deny." "We (the policemen) met and it was our unanimous decision to park the police car until after the election. We will start again after the election. We see no alternative. We can not allow the integrity or purpose of our department to be suspect." (Continued on Page 12)

Campaign charges, denials

Campaign charges and denials continued to emerge in great volume this week, especially regarding the Democratic gubernatorial primary, as the Tuesday, March 16, primary election drew near. Illinois State Comptroller George W. Lindberg, quoted often by Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett in Howlett's campaign comments about Governor Daniel Walker, spoke for himself last night at the final 1976 dinner of the Southern Division, Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

Speaking from a head table at the Missouri Athletic Club that included State Senator Sam Vandalabene and State Representatives Everett Steele and Celeste Stiehl, the state's first comptroller outlined in detail his charges that the Walker administration is purposely paying bills late as part of its pretense that there is an adequate state cash reserve.

Lindberg also rejected claims that the proposed 1976-77 state budget is balanced. "It is not reasonable to project that lapse period spending after July 1, 1976, will be as low as the projected $110 million balance," he asserted.

"Therefore, this fiscal year will end with a negative budgetary balance, and this constitutes a deficit under the budgetary concept. If lapse spending is average, almost $100 million of next year's revenue must be used to pay bills incurred this year. "Not only will there be no surplus to apply to the new year's appropriations, but we must borrow from 1977 to pay 1976 bills. "This situation has not existed at any time in the last 25 years, but it does exist now. We will end the year with a deficit (Continued on Page 3)

Endorsement momentum to Sec. Howlett

Endorsements by the Chicago Daily News, Chicago Sun-Times and Rock Island Argus have brought to 36 the number of Illinois newspapers supporting Michael J. Howlett for governor in the March 16 Democratic primary.

All three major Chicago dailies now have endorsed Howlett. The Tribune came out for him March 4. The Daily News during the weekend said Howlett's public stewardship has been rated as impeccable.

"As auditor of public accounts, he took over an office that had produced one of Illinois' worst scandals and guided it cleanly and efficiently through three elective terms," said the Daily News.

"He was elected secretary of (Continued on Page 32)

Manpower cut hits Nameoki

The Nameoki Town Board of Auditors was informed in a letter Monday night that all of its employees paid under the Madison County Manpower grant program have had their hours reduced from 40 to 30 hours per week through June 30, if possible.

In a letter from Dan Churovich, director of the county's Manpower program, the board was requested to return the employees to 40 hours, paying the extra 10 hours wages for each worker from township funds, if possible.

The board failed to act on that request. One custodian, however, was shifted from working under the Manpower program into a full-time custodial position paid by the township.

The shift leaves 10 Manpower employees for the township, plus one for the highway department, which has been transferred to the Chouteau Township High Department while Nameoki Highway workers are on strike.

Churovich noted in his letter that, although the hours for each Manpower employee have been reduced, the insurance and other benefits remain at the same level for each man.

In other business, the board considered ways to respond to an objection from Mrs. Helen Hawkins, 2600 Angela Drive, about tractor trucks parking in her subdivision.

A copy of a letter from Paul Hawkins, head of the county's zoning and environmental control departments, to Mrs. Hawkins (they are not related) was read, in which the county official said the tractors do not violate any county law.

Albert Bell, highway commissioner of Nameoki Township, said he is having a load limit ordinance prepared for that subdivision, but doubted whether the tractors would exceed the weight limit, unless they had trailers attached.

Bell said the county has a subdivision ordinance with commercial parking restrictions, but added, "I guess they can't enforce it."

The auditors were informed that an insurance binder has been issued by C&G Drive, Insurance Co., covering the town hall building for $115,000, the storage building for $6,000.

and the contents of the town hall for $10,000. The binder will remain in effect until new policies can be issued.

The township is converting its coverage from several policies to one blanket policy which has a lower premium than the separate policies had.

It was reported the finance committee is in the final phases of preparing the town fund, general assistance and revenue sharing budgets and should be able to finalize the budgets with one more meeting.

Donald Patrick, counselor of the Pontoon Beach branch of Coordinated Youth Services, was told attempts are being made to appropriate revenue sharing funds for a van for his department, but the determination is awaiting a written legal opinion from the township's attorney.

The van, which would be used to transport those in the Pontoon Beach Coordinated Youth program, has been in doubt since new federal revenue sharing guidelines indicated the revenue sharing funds may only be "mixed" with other federal funds under certain conditions.

The attorney, H. Carl Runge, earlier ruled the guidelines allowed the funds to be used jointly with Community Development funds for a new Lake Park Department rescue truck, but indicated the Coordinated Youth Services van did not fit the guidelines.

Two bids were opened on a side mower for a highway department tractor and were referred to the highway commissioner for study and a recommendation which to accept.

Bell was asked when his department will put one-way signs on Courtenay Boulevard, which was approved by the town board at a previous meeting. Bell said the signs would be posted as soon as the highway department strike is settled.

Bills ordered paid totaled $489 from revenue sharing, $2,280 from general assistance, $697 from the special hard road fund, $6,734 from the road and bridge fund, and $2,851 from the town fund.

The board adjourned until Monday, March 22, at 7 p.m., at the town hall, 4250 Highway 162.

Heavy county voting likely Active absentee voting signals a heavy vote March 16, Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles believes.

Her office has sent out 629 applications to those requesting them, and 359 have been returned, with absentee ballots then forwarded to them.

A registered vote, who will be absent from the county on March 16 may vote absentee either in the county clerk's office or by mail.

Clerk Bowles has two voting booths in her office, and 44 persons have cast their ballots to date.

Today has been set, by law, as the last day county clerks may accept applications for absentee ballots by mail.

Miss Bowles said her office will be open on Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon as a convenience for those wishing to vote in person.

In accordance with a new law, voters may still vote in person in her office Monday, March 15, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Election supplies are being delivered to a judge of election in each precinct this week.

A small supply of Democratic and Republican paper ballots is provided in the event a voting machine becomes inoperable and judges are so advised by the Shop machine technician.

Voting will be done on voting machines for all offices except small paper ballot for the Regional Board of School Trustees.

Specimen ballots have been published throughout the county this week.

There are 29 combinations of Congressional, General Assembly and County Board districts.

Venice man charged in theft of auto

Robin Pritchard, 20, of 619 Salveter Ave., Venice, was arrested in Venice at 3:35 p.m. Wednesday and was charged by Granite City police with a felony count of theft.

He allegedly stole the car of Jerry Myatt, operator of J&M Motors, 2310 Namecki Road, from the used car lot at 3:40 p.m. Wednesday and was arrested in that car in Venice 15 minutes later.

Myatt said three young men drove another car into the J&M lot and the driver got out and drove into Myatt's auto, which had the keys in the ignition. He then drove south toward Edwardsville Road.

Police were notified and requested Madison and Venice authorities to watch for the car, which allegedly was stopped at Klein and Brown streets in Venice.

While Pritchard was being held in the Venice Jail for Granite City police, he allegedly took off his clothing and burned it, attempting to flush some of the burned clothing down the toilet.

Venice police charged him with destruction of city property.

Unions support Demo candidates

By KEN WATSON

SPRINGFIELD.—How important is the labor vote in Illinois? It has been a debatable subject and especially so in a heavily industrialized state like Illinois which also has a tradition of strong unionism.

Cynics contend that there is no such thing as a labor vote and that political endorsements are merely the work of union leaders, whose positions as often as not are rejected by the rank and file members.

However, it is practically unheard for any candidate to turn down a union endorsement and most who do receive labor backing take pains to advertise the fact.

The strong opposition of organized labor was unquestionably a factor in Democrat Lyndon Johnson's landslide victory over Republican Barry Goldwater in the 1964 presidential campaign in Illinois and in most other states, especially the industrialized ones.

In Illinois, Alabama Gov. George Wallace's success in cutting into the heavily unionized blue collar vote may have cost Democrat Hubert Humphrey, strongly supported by the leadership of organized labor, Illinois' electoral vote in the 1968 presidential campaign.

Had Illinois union organizations been able to "sell" Humphrey more well, he would have carried this state instead of losing it to Republican Richard M. Nixon by 134,560 votes.

Wallace polled 399,958 votes in Illinois that year and most of them were believed cast by blue collar unionists, despite the dislike of Wallace often voiced by national AFL-CIO leaders.

However, a strong labor effort undoubtedly was a contributing factor in Democrat John F. Kennedy's victory by some 8,000 votes over Nixon in Illinois in 1960.

Those who depreciate the influence of unions in elections point to labor's increasing identification with the Democratic party in recent years. They contend that voters in general as well as union members have come to accept union endorsement of Democrats as automatic and therefore of no importance.

This trend is clear in Illinois and endorsement of any Republican candidate is becoming rare, a situation which was not the case a few years back. Both Sen. Charles H. Percy and Attorney General William J. Scott received significant support from Illinois labor in their 1972 campaigns.

The Illinois Committee on Political Education (COPE), the political arm of the Illinois AFL-CIO, has not seen fit to endorse a single Republican for statewide office or for Congress in the March 16 primary.

In the Democratic primary the organization has endorsed the slate backed by the party's regular organization.

Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett, primary challenger to Gov. Dan Walker, has the support of another important union group, the United Automobile Workers Union. The UAW has also endorsed the other candidates on the Howlett slate.

Walker, who has courted organized labor during his three years as governor, has received the endorsement of only one major union, the United Mine Workers. The UMW also endorsed Roland Harris, Walker-aligned candidate for comptroller, but gave its other endorsements to organization candidates.

Candidates running for governor and some running for seats in the legislature, are forthrightly discussing the state's financial crisis but to date no one has attempted to isolate the fund-raising crisis and propose solutions.

The campaign discussion so far was not advanced beyond personalities. Gov. Dan Walker likes to blame the problem on Mayor Richard Daley. Mayor Daley has focused on overriding government vetoes.

What has not surfaced in the campaign debate is the General Assembly's financial crisis. The work of the legislature has become more chaotic by the year since the 1970 state constitution authorized annual sessions.

The new constitution which became operative at the close of Gov. Richard Ogilvie's term permitted the doubling of legislative sessions in the years since the legislative sessions were doubled, the state's general fund budget also has doubled.

Perhaps there is some comfort in the fact that Springfield, which represents the Capital City district in the Senate. However, the weekly newsletter of the AFL-CIO gives Davidson only one flag, meaning a "fair" legislative rating. Four flags would mean excellent.

Probe fatal stabbing in State Park

Madison County sheriff's deputies are investigating the fatal stabbing of Charles E. Carter, 52, in his home at 30 National Blvd., State Park Place, Tuesday, but have made no arrests, a spokesman for the sheriff said today.

Carter's body was found in the kitchen of his home with a stab wound to the neck. A large butcher knife was found near the body.

A woman who had been at his home called for an ambulance at 9 p.m. Tuesday and ambulance officials notified deputies.

The woman has been questioned, but deputies have been unable to determine if the wound was accidental, self-inflicted, or was made by someone else, the spokesman said, adding the investigation is continuing.

Primary ignores crisis solution

By RICHARD CRABB

SPRINGFIELD.—The major problem facing Illinois government is getting little attention in the primary election campaign.

Candidates running for governor and some running for seats in the legislature, are forthrightly discussing the state's financial crisis but to date no one has attempted to isolate the fund-raising crisis and propose solutions.

The campaign discussion so far was not advanced beyond personalities. Gov. Dan Walker likes to blame the problem on Mayor Richard Daley. Mayor Daley has focused on overriding government vetoes.

What has not surfaced in the campaign debate is the General Assembly's financial crisis. The work of the legislature has become more chaotic by the year since the 1970 state constitution authorized annual sessions.

The new constitution which became operative at the close of Gov. Richard Ogilvie's term permitted the doubling of legislative sessions in the years since the legislative sessions were doubled, the state's general fund budget also has doubled.

Perhaps there is some comfort in the fact that Springfield, which represents the Capital City district in the Senate. However, the weekly newsletter of the AFL-CIO gives Davidson only one flag, meaning a "fair" legislative rating. Four flags would mean excellent.

The Indiana legislature has adopted a modified form of annual sessions but limits the old year sessions to 45 working days which come before June and the even year sessions to 30 working days which are usually over before May.

This gives the organs of government 30 to 60 days to prepare for the beginning of the new state year which begins, as does the year in Illinois, on July 1.

Minnesota had the good sense to place annual sessions of its legislature on trial. After two years the Minnesota legislature returned to its former practice of holding one major legislative session every two years with special sessions called as needed.

Utah currently is debating the wisdom of increasing the frequency of legislative sessions. Wisconsin has not changed its concept of two-year budget planning and infrequent legislative ses-

20 arrested, 65 crimes are solved

An investigation by the Pontiac Beach Police Department has resulted in the arrests of 20 juveniles and has cleared 65 crimes, including 17 per cent of last year's burglaries in the village, Chief of Police Rosevelt Bennett Jr. announced Tuesday.

The juveniles are from three different "groups," who committed burglaries, thefts and acts of vandalism in the village as far back as 1974, he said.

One group has been active more than a year, another nine months and the third was a less active group and not involved in serious crimes for very long, the chief noted.

The juvenile court petitions filed against them, requested juvenile court hearings on the cases.

Cases cleared include 24 burglaries, 12 auto burglaries, six small theft cases, a motorcycle theft, a bicycle theft and seven attempted house break-ins.

Most of the crimes were in or near the Gaslight Walk Apartments.

Of the 24 house or apartment burglaries cleared, 22 were from 1975 and represent 16.9 per cent of the 130 total burglaries reported in the village during that year.

Most of the burglaries occurred after windows were broken out of rear doors and entry gained by reaching through the windows and unlocking the doors from the inside, Bennett noted.

Items taken in the 65 crimes which have been cleared have a total value in excess of $7,300, not counting damage to the homes and apartments, the chief noted.

A lengthy investigation into similarities between the burglaries and other crimes was started Feb. 25 and resulted in the 20 arrests, it was noted.

Intensive investigation into murders continuing

"We have a great deal of physical evidence, but still no firm suspects," a spokesman for the Granite City Police Department said this morning while discussing the investigation into the murders of Richard and Anna Kube one week ago in their home. He said the detective bureau has been operating at full capacity since the murders and this week a police officer was transferred to the detective bureau temporarily to assist in the investigation.

Six men have been devoting full-time to trying to solve the murders, the spokesman said. An appeal for information from persons who may have been in the Kubes' neighborhood the day of the murder was given in Monday's Press-Record and several calls received, he said.

The calls yielded several leads, which are being checked out, the spokesman added. "Much of our time has been spent checking rumors which simply are not true," he said.

adding, "there is just no truth to the rumor the bodies were beaten and mutilated. They were intact and there were no signs of severe beatings or tortures." The two were strangled with electric cords. Claims that a young man was delivering a newspaper that day and was dragged into the house also were called "wild rumors" by the police spokesman.

An official of Granite City News Service, which distributes the Press-Record, issued a statement that both the young man who delivers the Press-Record in the neighborhood and a man who delivers newspapers from persons who may have been involved in any way.

There is no evidence there was any kind of sexual abuse of anyone involved, as some rumors imply, the police spokesman added.

He said the detectives "have questioned dozens of witnesses that have been accounted for and no one has been charged for the second or third time."

"Each time we question someone, we come up with new facts or a slightly different angle. All of these things are helpful."

"We are constantly digging for more evidence and more suspects, and we have one heck of a lot more leads to check out," the police spokesman said.

A report that a close friend of the Kube couple drove them home after shopping the morning of the murders was in error. Mrs. Hilda Fortner said she drove the couple to a downtown Granite City bank and then met them at the Woodworth store, but she then departed to go to work.

Police believe someone may have entered the house with them when they returned from grocery shopping and then strangled them with the cords to electric steam irons.

One detective summarized the feelings of the Granite City Police Department when he told the Press-Record, "We have not had an unsolved murder case in Granite City in as long as we can remember, and we are going to do everything we can to see that this is not the first."

Couple held in burglary attempt

Edward E. Kearn, 44, and his wife, Nora L. Kearn, 1545 Collinsville Ave., Madison, were charged at 11:05 p.m. Wednesday with the attempted burglary of Lynn's Diner, 1018 Broadway, Venice.

Kearn also was charged with possession of burglary tools after police allegedly found a screw driver, paring knife, putty knife and a crescent wrench on his person.

Child and Family services were called by police when told by Mrs. Kearn that she had two sons, 7 and 5 at home.

Venice police received a call that a burglary was in progress. As they approached the rear of the diner officers allegedly found a man and woman at the rear door, which had been damaged.

They were being held this morning at the Venice City jail pending court action.

$13,500 FIRE LOSS

Faulty electrical wiring is cited as the cause of a fire at the home of Bill Causey, 219 Pershing Blvd., which caused $8,000 damage to the building and $5,500 loss of contents at 6:30 a.m. today. Firemen, at the scene for more than an hour, said the fire started in a bedroom and then spread to the basement.

MURDER CHARGED

Illinois State Police have charged Joseph Lee Pryor, 24, Alton, with the Feb. 29 murder of Otis Washpyn, 56, Brooklyn, outside of a Brooklyn restaurant. Pryor was arrested at his home last week and is being held in the St. Clair County Jail at Belleville.

Taylor stabbed in prison

Wayne D. Taylor, 28, of the 3100 block of Kirkpatrick Homes, was stabbed in the back while an inmate at Menard State Prison in Chester Tuesday and is reported recuperating at the prison hospital.

Taylor began a one to six-year prison term last month for voluntary manslaughter in the fatal stabbing of Albert L. Wells Jr., 24, of 2801 Marshall Ave.,

Nov. 7, 1975, which allegedly occurred in the front yard of a home in the 4200 block of Division Street in Pontoon Beach.

Preliminary reports from Menard are that Taylor had just come in from the recreation yard when about three other inmates jumped on him and he was stabbed in the back with a homemade knife, the blade becoming imbedded in his back.

He was taken to a Chester hospital and was returned today to the Menard Prison hospital.

Six now in GC school race

Nominating petitions as a candidate for election to the Granite City School Board in the April 10 balloting have been filed by Mrs. Dorothy Phelps, 4145 South St., bringing to six the total number of candidates seeking two school board posts.

Mrs. Phelps filed as a candidate from the rural area and is the third person to file as a rural candidate. At least one rural board member must be elected this year.

There have been no new candidate filings in the Madison or Venice school districts, but two additional candidates have filed for board posts in the Belleville Area College district. They are Leonard "Lucky" Cocco of Belleville and Sam G. Gillespie, 119 West Moreland, Collinsville, bring to five the number of candidates for two BAC board posts.

BOY STRUCK BY CAR

Dean Johnson, 11, of 619 Washington Ave., Venice, was treated for pain to his left elbow at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 12:05 p.m. Wednesday and released. Young Johnson reportedly was knocked down by an auto while crossing Broadway at the school crossing in the 600 block. Charles Melton Henkle, 48, driver of 1657 Olive St. was given a traffic ticket on a charge of running a school stop sign.

ARREST ON WARRANTS

Aaron D. Wilson, 26, of 4908 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested at his home at 5:50 p.m. Wednesday by Granite City police who served three St. Louis County warrants on him alleging burglary and two counts of stealing. The warrants set his bond at $10,000.

Religion not banned from airwaves but big mail volume continuing

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Somewhere in the American hinterland someone pushed the panic button, releasing the torrent of mail urging the Federal Communications Commission not to remove the Bible from the airwaves.

The FCC never even considered doing so, and so declared last August, but the mail keeps pouring in at a rate of 5,000 to 6,000 letters a day.

"It just never seems to stop," said Henry Patrick, FCC's spokesman, bemused by the biggest avalanche ever to hit the commission on any issue.

Ironically, this time it is a non-issue, a dead horse, a myth, a will-o-the-wisp, perhaps the figment of an overwrought mind.

The name of Madalyn Murray O'Hair may be the stimulus for the more than three million pieces of mail since December 1974, when two California broadcast consultant petitioned the FCC to freeze all religious channels reserved for television and FM radio channels reserved for educational stations and to investigate religious broadcasters.

The two consultants, Jeremy Lansman and Lorenzo W. Milan, of Los Gatos, were critical of religious broadcasters who "thrive" on free-will offerings and "misuse" banal programming "akin to the spirit of a fast-food franchise."

In the ensuing uproar bawling her name about, Mrs. O'Hair was constrained to protest. A self-styled atheist who sought public exposure in 1969 for astronauts who read from the Bible in space, Mrs. O'Hair has a name that evokes a condition response from many religious people. If she's for something, they are automatically against it.

"I am innocent," Mrs. O'Hair said in an interview when asked if she was involved directly or indirectly in a petition to take the Gospel off the air.

"Any such movement is strictly a figment of somebody's imagination. Perhaps someone found one of the old 1969 petitions lying around and thought something new was underway. But absolutely nothing is happening."

Something was happening. Someone apparently was crying "Wolf!"

Circulars went nationwide, urging a letter campaign directed at the FCC to "stop Madalyn Murray O'Hair," who was said to be up to her old tricks again.

This time, it was said, she had a petition with 27,000 signatures demanding an end to the broadcast of worship services and even the mention of God on the air.

The letters and petitions protesting any FCC anti-religious action generally cite "Petition 2463."

This is the number, RM 2463, FCC assigned for "rule-making" on the petition filed by Lansman and Milan, the two California consultants.

The full FCC ruled on the Lansman-Milan petition on Aug. 1, 1975, and announced its decision in Report No. 13485 of that date.

"The FCC denied today a petition by Jeremy D. Lansman and Lorenzo W. Milan requesting a 'freeze' on applications by religious institutions for television or FM channels reserved for education stations," the FCC said.

It noted that the petition produced "more than 700,000 comments, the largest number in FCC history."

"The commission found, however, that the vast majority of letters were premised on the mistaken view that the petitions proposed to ban all religious broadcasting, which is not the case."

FCC officials took pains to point out in report 13485:

"As a government agency, the commission is enjoined by the first amendment to observe a stance of neutrality toward religion, acting neither to promote nor to inhibit religion."

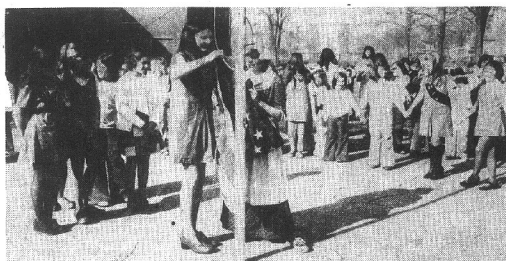

The FCC characterized the Lansman-Milan petition as an "impermissible proposition that would violate commission neutrality."

It seemed clear enough. The case has been "closed" since. But the 700,000 comments up to then have grown to more than three million and they continue to come in.

The mail on this non-issue dwarfs by far the former record of 116,000 letters the FCC got last year while it was considering whether to ban advertising from children's TV shows.

Church publications have been following this one closely. Some voice caution editorially, urging church people not to panic when they hear rumors about governmental restrictions on religion.

"Get the facts," says one. "Then act in an informed, rational manner."

Barron, Checkerboard Squares are reunited

Checkerboard Squares traveled to Farmington, Mo., over the weekend to perform square dance and round dance exhibition numbers at the Bridlewood Country Club.

They went at the request of the head chef, Gary Barron, who will be remembered by local residents as the young man responsible for the Granite City flag.

It was his request for a city flag to fly on his vehicle in Vietnam that triggered the flag contest in local schools, leading to selection of the current city flag.

Barron is also an ex-Checkerboard member, having danced with the group in the early 1960s. He "paid" for his group going to Farmington by "calling" a duet with Ken Buford for the group.

Mrs. Emma Boyd, 88 years old, accompanied the group and played several selections on her violin. One of the numbers was "Golden Shippers," youngest members of the group squared up and danced to the calls of Bob Boyd.

A highlight of the evening was a pantomime, "Ahab, the Arab," performed by Kim Smith and Lisa Dohmal.

Following the Checkerboards' exhibition, members of the country club were taught basic square dance steps and danced to the calls of Ken Buford and Bob Boyd.

Checkerboard members making the trip were Lisa Dohmal, Gean Barker, Kim Smith, Steve Dohmal, Brenda Gott, Vincent Dohmal, Jenise Pingel, Jeff Gibson, Debbie Miller, Alan Lewis, Lori Dorosetti, Frankie White, Sherri Marcum, Donald Marcum, Susie Mainridge and Elmer Meyer.

Providing transportation for the group were Mrs. Ruby Barker, Mrs. Jan Bergfeld, Ken Buford, Mr. and Mrs. Bob White and Bob Boyd.

When Robert "Bob" Whelan came to Granite City following the Korean war, he brought with him experience in a sport, judo, that eventually developed into a "family affair." And it has made a lasting impression on the somewhat related sport of wrestling here.

A native of New York, Whelan learned to wrestle while attending Chicago's Hirsch High School. He placed third in the state finals in each of his sophomore and senior years there.

He attended Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and was a starting member of a Saluki wrestling team that in four years of competition posted an 84-4 win-loss record.

"During the war, I spent two years in Japan and learned as much as possible about judo," says Whelan.

"What I learned then is paying off for my sons now." An assistant wrestling coach at Granite City High School North, Whelan has four sons who have become actively involved in wrestling and who are blazing a brighter trail of success with each passing year.

Kris and Keith Whelan this season spelled "double trouble" for opponents as members of North High's Steeler squad, finishing fourth and fifth in statewide mat competition.

And are there many more at home like them? Yes, two more: "The boys decided to compete on their own," says Whelan. "I help them as much as possible, but the real credit for their development goes to North Coach Walt Whitaker."

Following their participation at the Junior high school level at Grigsby, where Keith failed to earn a starting spot on the Gator squad and where Kris made the team as an eighth grader, the two blossomed into their own upon enrolling at North High.

As freshmen, a year apart from each other, they had almost unprecedented success. Kris posted a 16-0 season record and, combined with participation on the Junior varsity squad, had an overall mark of 22-2-2.

Keith concluded his first season of high school competition with a 15-0 record. As a sophomore last year, he started with a 22-0 varsity record and sixth place in the state.

During the 1975-76 mat season, Sophomore Kris and Junior Keith continued their winning ways with North's varsity team. Their prowess nearly always provided the Steelers with an early point advantage over opposing schools in dual meets, and the school achieved a 17-4 record.

Kris Whelan, at 98 pounds, started the season with 17 straight wins before losing his first bout at GCHS South's holiday tournament.

He bounced back to win an additional 17 straight which included championships of district and sectional competition, and then he placed the season with his fourth-place finish at state. Keith, at 105, went undefeated (29-0) during the regular season and captured top honors in his weight class in district competition before bowing in the championship match of the sectional held here. His regular season activity concluded with fifth place at state.

"Just because the high school season is over," notes Whelan, "doesn't mean Kris and Keith will stop going."

"For them, wrestling is a year-round sport." Both will compete this weekend, March 12-13, in the first of a series of freestyle meets with hopes of qualifying, through their performances, for a freestyle district tournament to be held here in July.

The top three matmen in each weight class in July will earn a berth in state finals at Chicago. The top three wrestlers at state then will advance into the U. S. Wrestling Federation freestyle nationals in Wisconsin to compete with youths representing 45 states.

Last summer, Keith Whelan placed third in the state federation meet and earned second place in national competition. Kris bowed out of the Illinois competition with a first-round loss.

"Freestyle wrestling is where their training in judo comes in," it is pointed out. "Judo style hiplocks and foot sweeps are important ingredients in winning freestyle bouts."

And their overall experience, condition, agility and mat confidence are regarded as also proving helpful to them in the less free-wheeling Illinois High School Association version of wrestling.

While Kris and Keith have their sights set on national crowns this summer and on another successful campaign during North High's 1976-77 season, when GCHS North will be a regional and state favorite, two other Whelans are establishing themselves as probable future standouts in the sport.

Matt is a fifth grade student at Maryville Grade School. Pat, a seventh grader at Grigsby Junior High, had a 14-3 mark this season.

Both competed last weekend at Belleville East in an Illinois Wrestling Federation tournament for boys aged 14-and-under.

Pat, at 65 pounds, captured first place in his weight class at Belleville and will compete for a second straight year in the state tournament at Chicago this Saturday. Matt, at 60 pounds, failed to qualify for the state finals, placing third at Belleville.

"I'll never forget last year's Belleville meet," says Coach Whelan.

"Both Matt and Pat entered in 60-pound competition and advanced to the championship bout against each other."

College careers for Kris and Keith loom in the immediate future.

Both indicate they would like to continue their wrestling careers and perhaps someday return to Granite City to apply their knowledge of the sport to coaching still another generation of young athletes.

The Cougar cagers of SIUE finished their best season ever by capturing fifth place in the Illinois state women's basketball tournament in Macomb during the weekend. The women were 2-1 for the tournament, losing a first-round game and then taking their two games in the consolation bracket.

The loss was dealt by Eastern Illinois University, a team that had already beaten SIUE 45-40 earlier in the season. The Panthers outscored SIUE 55-46.

Jan Green led the Cougar attack with 10 points, followed by Kathy Goings, with 11. Their efforts were not enough as the Panthers snapped the Cougars' 11-game winning streak.

Illinois State U. of Normal won the tourney with a 55-45 victory over Southern Illinois U. at Carbondale. It was the fifth straight title for Illinois State.

In the consolation bracket, SIUE overcame the Blue Demons of DePaul University, 85-37. Kathy Goings scored 14, Sharon Frey, Jane O'Loughlin and Jayne Bertoglio 12 each and Jan Green, 10.

Jan Green scored 18 points and Sharon Frey and Jane O'Loughlin added 14 and 13 in pacing the Cougars to a 52-41 victory over the Northern Illinois Huskies, gaining a fifth-place finish for SIUE.

It was SIUE's second time in the state tournament. Had the Cougars taken one of the top three spots, they would have advanced to regional play in Michigan.

The two victories and one loss in the tourney upped the Cougars' final record to 19-4 for the season. Most of the girls attribute the team's success to the efforts of their coach, Ina Anderson of Granite City.

But like all good things, the basketball season too must end. This is not going to give the girls any more time to themselves, except for Jo Ann Weinstroer. She is the only girl on the team who hasn't signed up for the women's softball team at SIUE.

The girls will get out their gloves immediately and begin preparing for that season, which begins April 3 with a home game against the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Each team can have no more than 15 players and not less than 13 on the official roster. Games will be played during the day.

Each girl will be required to pay a $3 registration fee plus her insurance.

First words spoken on telephone 100 years ago

BURGLARIZE APARTMENT
A $300 radio was the only thing known stolen during a burglary at the home of John Ketzman, 1427 Madison Ave., which was reported at 6:50 p.m. Tuesday. A rear window was broken and the apartment door was forced open. The apartment was ransacked.

One hundred years ago — on March 10, 1876 — two men were preparing to test a device in a small laboratory in Boston. The device is commonplace today — there are more than 144 million of them in this country alone. In 1876, though, there were two. One sat before Alexander Graham Bell. The other before his assistant, Thomas Watson. They were hoping to make the first telephone call. Bell, the young inventor, spilled battery acid on his clothes and called for help. "Mr. Watson, come here. I want you."

And Alexander Graham Bell, in his excitement, had transmitted the first intelligible sentence over the telephone over a 40-foot wire leading from one room in the house to another. Bell's experiment with a new liquid transmitter had succeeded, and the telephone was born.

Two years later, in 1878, while many people still regarded the telephone as a toy, Bell predicted phones would become commonplace and that wires linking cities together would permit people to talk over long distance.

And now, in the telephone's centennial year, there are more than 144 million phones in the United States, and a caller can reach any one of those phones in a matter of seconds. The first telephones — six of them — were taken to Chicago a little more than a year after Bell's "accident." On June 18, 1879, by Gardner G. Hubbard, soon to become Bell's father-in-law.

Hubbard registered at the Grand Pacific Hotel, then went to the Union Building at LaSalle and Washington Streets to call on the leading telegraph men of Chicago: General Anson Stager, vice-president and general superintendent of Western Union, and Leroy B. Firman, American District Telegraph general manager. He left two telephones with each man.

And that was the beginning. Within a year after phone service had been introduced in Chicago, exchanges were established in downstate Illinois cities. The first, a Bell exchange, was opened at Peoria on May 6, 1879. By the end of that year, Bell or Western Union exchanges were operating in Jacksonville, Quincy, Bloomington, Pekin, Springfield, Moline, Rock Island, Decatur and Danville. The first "long distance" service came in 1881, when a line was built from Chicago to Geneva, with branches to Elgin and Aurora. By 1886, toll lines connected Chicago with local exchanges in nine of the larger suburbs, with 63 "toll stations" (public telephones) in the smaller towns.

The number of phones served by Illinois Bell has soared from the original six taken to Chicago in 1877 to more than 7,446,000 today, connected by more than 44.7 million miles of wire, according to Illinois Bell officials. Illinois Bell's customers today place about 39 million calls on an average weekday; about 35 million are local calls. The company has about $4.6 billion invested in its property used to provide service to its customers, and will add about $455 million to that total in 1976. What about the future of the telephone? It's predicted that the telephone may be able to do almost anything anyone wants it to by the year 2000. People will be able to transmit information in almost any form, with greater speed and economy, officials predict.

Bell System scientists believe the details of normal living — shopping, cooking, paying bills and balancing a checkbook, figuring income tax returns, voting — could be handled smoothly by computerized appliances in the home within the next 25 years.

People might even work from their homes. With their telephone — if it's still called by that name — people could obtain information or expert advice on any subject whenever they wish. And they could see and talk with anyone on earth or far out in space simply by touching a few buttons on their phone. Developments like these could continue to come from Bell Telephone Laboratories, which has been expanding the communications horizon since 1925, officials noted.

In the year 2000, it may be that Western Electric, the Bell System's manufacturing and supply arm, will make phones which will be "dialed" by voice, or portable, wireless phones which people carry around with them so they're never out of touch.

And by that year, AT&T Long Lines, the long distance unit of the system, predicts it will handle 40 billion interstate calls annually — ten times today's volume.

Tremendous amounts of capital money will be needed to make these kinds of improvements in phone service over the coming years, Bell officials added.

For example, Illinois Bell's construction over the past decade has totaled more than $3.5 billion. The total bill for the 1970's will be more than $5 billion. Billions more will be spent over the years as service keeps pace with customer needs.

Today Illinois Bell, the Bell System and the rest of the telephone industry will hold various celebrations to mark that first — and what may well be the shortest — telephone call in history.

Advocate computer doctoral program

A group of educators from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Washington University will make a presentation Saturday in Chicago to the Illinois Board of Higher Education's (IBHE) Commission of Scholars on behalf of a joint doctoral program in computer science proposed by the two universities.

Representing SIUE will be Vice-President and Provost Andrew J. Kochman; Dean Vaughn J. Lindsey of the Graduate School, Dean Earl Lazerson of the School of Science and Technology and Norval D. Wallace, chairman of the department of mathematical studies.

Washington U. will be represented by Jerome Cox, chairman of the department of computer science, and Dean James M. McKeivley of the School of Engineering and Applied Science.

If the program is recommended by the Commission of Scholars and approved by the IBHE, it will be the first cooperative undertaking of the two universities to become operational since the late John S. Hendricks, former SIUE president, and administrators of Washington University and St. Louis University agreed in 1972 to develop joint programs.

Under the proposed plan, students will be able to take courses from either of the two universities to earn credit toward the degree.

Objective of the program is to provide students in Southern and Southwestern Illinois an opportunity to prepare for a profession that will be a "high demand" field, Dean Lindsey said.

Numerous programs in computer science are offered in the Chicago and Champaign areas but none in this area of Illinois, Dean Lindsey noted. According to Dean Lazerson, recent studies show computer science is one of the few areas in which doctoral level graduates are being under-produced.

A committee from the IBHE has reported that "during the coming decade, the supply of computer scientists will lag far behind demand at all levels. The high demand will continue to draw people originally trained in other disciplines, especially those in mathematics, into computer science."

In a statement of support when the program was originally proposed, Washington University Chancellor William H. Danforth said, "At a time when it is especially important not to duplicate expensive graduate education, the proposal for a joint computer science program with SIUE is an innovative and practical approach to the problem."

"The plan would combine both institutions' resources in the best interests of students and taxpayers."

The degree program would be administered cooperatively by the SIUE department of mathematical studies and the WU department of computer science.

Faculty from both institutions would serve as instructors. Library resources and computing services at both universities would be open to students in the program.

The program was approved by SIUE trustees in the fall of 1974. It has been under consideration by the IBHE since that time.

The Commission of Scholars, which serves in an advisory relationship to the IBHE on doctoral programs, is composed of seven recognized educators from outside Illinois. The chairman is Paul L. Dressel, director of institutional research at Michigan State University.

In addition to advising on the academic excellence of the proposed program and the adequacy of the two institutions to meet programmatic requirements, the commission has been asked by the IBHE to assess the need for the proposed doctoral program and to evaluate its relationship with existing programs in the state.

Trash pickups delayed

An environmental cleanup program in Namecki Township under which township employees collect trash and limbs on a regular schedule from homes will be resumed as soon as possible after the present strike of highway employees ends, the Namecki Town Board of Auditors disclosed at Monday night's Town Board of Auditors meeting.

The program was discontinued in November when funds ran out and was to be resumed when the new fiscal year started March 1, but a strike by the highway employees has delayed the start.

It was noted the town board must sign an agreement with the township's highway commissioner, Albert Bell, to have the program conducted by the highway department but paid from the township's revenue sharing fund.

Bell said he will give a collection schedule to the Press-Record as soon as the program can be resumed. It was noted the pickups this year will be primarily for limbs with only an occasional pickup of large trash.

Sportsman's club robbed of $84

Ralph Miller, owner of the Sportsman's Club, 1001 Iowa St., Madison, reported to police at 8:40 p.m. Monday that a lone gunman entered his tavern and said "How are you? This is a stickup."

The robber then displayed a blue steel revolver.

Miller went to the cash register and gave the man $84.

The gunman then reportedly struck Miller and fled.

He was described as about 30 years old, five feet, ten inches tall, wearing a dark jacket and light blue shirt.

Airlift command honored

The Military Airlift Command (MAC) has received the Secretary of the Air Force Small Business and Minority Enterprise Program Award for the fourth consecutive year.

In a brief ceremony at Scott Monday, General Paul K. Carlton, MAC commander, presented the award to Thomas K. Gonsalves, the MAC executive for small business. The award recognizes the outstanding achievement in contract awards to small business and minority firms during fiscal year 1975. Air Force Headquarters set a goal for MAC to award $130 million in contracts to small business and $1.6 million in contracts to minority enterprises.

The contracts were for construction, services, supplies and purchases under $10,000. MAC exceeded both goals, awarding $171.4 million in contracts to small business and $2.03 million to minority firms.

"The offices of the Illinois State Employment Service are actively soliciting jobs for older workers."

Hospital reduces its malpractice insurance

Efforts are being made to keep patients' costs reasonable by limiting the extent of hospital malpractice insurance. C. E. Townsend, chairman of the Governing Board of St. Elizabeth Hospital said today. Townsend has reported to the medical staff and associates on the present medical malpractice issue in this area. "The current national malpractice insurance crisis is frequently reported in the press and on television broadcasts. California doctors staged a work slowdown over it, several states passed legislation in an effort to cope with it, and all hospitals face skyrocketing insurance premiums. St. Elizabeth Hospital faces this crisis as well," Townsend noted. "In 1974, the hospital carried $3 million malpractice insurance coverage for which we paid a $146,000 premium.

"In 1975, the same carrier demanded a $993,000 premium for $5 million coverage — equivalent to a $10 per day charge to each patient in our hospital. "We negotiated with many different carriers, and finally decided to self-insure for the first $100,000 of liability. We paid $100,000 for protection from $100,000 to $5 million. "In 1976, to continue this coverage, the premium to the hospital would have exceeded $1 million — again equivalent to a per-patient day cost of $10. "The Governing Board decided our claims loss experience did not warrant this cost to the patient, and elected to self-insure. "The hospital will bear the cost directly of the first $250,000 ($250,000 aggregate) liability and obtain insurance protection for the next $250,000 ($500,000 aggregate) at a premium of $146,000.

"We have no insurance protection beyond these limits. "In the last six years, our hospital has experienced an average yearly claims loss of $35,000. These dollars are payments to patients and visitors that our insurance company has made for various forms of liability, regardless of the merits of the claims. As can be seen, our hospital has paid considerably more in insurance premiums than we have experienced in losses. "We, therefore, do not feel it is in the best interest of our patients to increase our daily charges by $10 to cover the cost of exorbitant insurance premiums.

"We feel that our associates provide a high quality of care, and we will continue to rely on their professional expertise to maintain this level and keep hospital costs as low as possible."

Madison woman shot; husband is charged

Mrs. Marcell Obiranovich, 51, of 1810 Second St., Madison was reported in satisfactory condition Wednesday at Lutheran Hospital, St. Louis, after suffering a gunshot wound to the right chest and ear at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

John Frank Obiranovich, 52, her husband, was arraigned before Judge A. A. Mateosian at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday on a charge of attempted murder and was released on $25,000 bond.

Police said that when they arrived at the scene, they found Mrs. Obiranovich sitting at a kitchen table holding a blood-soaked towel to her head.

Police confiscated a .38 caliber pistol with one shot allegedly fired.

Police said the incident occurred during a family argument.

Mrs. Williams dies at 51

Mrs. Naomi Williams, 51, of 1213 Market St., Venice, was taken from her home by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was pronounced dead upon arrival at 9 a.m. Monday. She had been ill three weeks.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Williams moved to this area in 1945.

She was a member of the One Way Church of God in East St. Louis.

Survivors include her husband, Alex Williams; two sons, Willie Walker, Madison; and Alvin Williams, Logansport; two daughters, Mrs. Betty Caldwell, Fort Hood, Tex., and Mrs. Sandra Hancher of Edwardsville; four brothers, James, Woodie, Roy and Webb Ford; three sisters, Johnnie Boyd, Jewelyn Pearson and Mary Spratt, and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Allocations to Quad-City communities included $24,597 to Granite City, $5,988 to Madison and $5,979 to Venice.

The DOT also announced allocation of $3,666,044 in motor fuel tax funds to downstate counties, including $114,704 to Madison County.

G. W. Humphrey Jr. named GC Steel vice president and controller

G. Watts Humphrey Jr. has been promoted to vice president and controller of Granite City Steel, it was announced today by Robert D. McBride, president.

Granite City Steel is a division of National Steel Corporation. As controller, Humphrey succeeds Ronald H. Doerr, who is moving to National's Great Lakes Steel Division (Detroit area) as vice president-accounting.

Humphrey, 31, joined National Steel at its Midwest Steel Division, Portage, Ind., in 1970. He came to Granite City Steel in 1972 and worked as a foreman on plant operating units and as a metallurgist. He was appointed assistant director of purchases in 1974 and assistant controller in 1975.

Humphrey received a bachelor of arts degree from Yale University in 1966 and a master of business administration degree from Harvard Business School in 1972. From 1966 to 1969, he was in the Marine Corps, serving in Vietnam as an infantry company commander with the rank of first lieutenant.

He is a member of the boards of directors of the Commerce Bank of St. Louis, the Tri-City Area YMCA, and the Granite City Steel Management Club, and of the development board of St. Louis Children's Hospital. He is married, has three children and lives in St. Louis County.

Granite City Steel at present has about 4,800 employees.

Chouteau township ok's local tax collection

The Chouteau Town Board of Auditors agreed during the board's regular meeting Monday night to continue to use a township tax collector, rather than rely on Madison County to collect all the taxes in the township.

They approved a budget of $9,082 for Chouteau Township Collector Charles Loxlow for the upcoming fiscal year. The auditors noted that with a township tax collector, the bulk of the taxes are received by the township months before they would be under a county collection.

The board also approved First Granite City National Bank as the depository for the collector, and approved a burglary insurance package for the collector's office.

In other business, the board agreed to pay $341 to the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission as the Chouteau Township share of the cost of operating the commission for the upcoming year.

Several complaints from the county's animal control department were received of residents in Chouteau Township allowing dogs to run loose in residential areas. It was noted the township is covered under the county's leash law which requires dogs in residential areas to be kept in enclosed areas or on a leash.

The auditors failed to act on a request for a $75 donation to help establish an information line where persons with mental problems or considering suicide could call for help.

GC Steel Women hear Ron Ward

Ronald Ward, a Coolidge Junior High School teacher, demonstrated the technique of making decorative pottery games Tuesday of the Granite City Steel Women's Association. President Jerry Dublar opened the meeting held in the GCS general office building and Betty Romann gave the invocation.

An "Irish Boil" dinner was served by chairman Elizabeth Nieper and her committee, Helene Blachoff, Bobbie Sykes, Jenny Johnson, Dee Greer, Jennie Monphard and Betty Romann. The tables were decorated with hurricane lamps, which were later awarded as prizes. Those attending in the games were Mary Higgins, Mary Corday, Marge Burkhardt, Glenda Moore, Jene Lybarger, Grace Lehn, Jennie Monphard, Opal McFarland, Wanda Schewe, Vivian Flaughar and Phyllis Biver.

Mrs. Kosyodor dies at 73

Mrs. Ann C. Kosyodor, 73, of Fairview Heights, mother of Leo Kosyodor of Granite City, died Tuesday at Memorial Hospital, Belleville. Survivors include her husband, John; two daughters; five other sons; four sisters and four brothers. Services will be at 9:30 a.m. Friday at St. Philip Catholic Church, East St. Louis. Rosary will be at 7:30 p.m. today at a Fairview Heights funeral home.

VEHICLE LOOTED

A $245 citizens' band radio was stolen from the vehicle of Paul Young, 219 Sunny Shore Mobile Home Park, parked in the driveway of his home, it was reported at 5:25 p.m. Tuesday.

U. S. Grant

himself by his service in the Mexican War (although he was out of sympathy with its aims).

He resented transfer to a dreary frontier post at Humboldt Bay, California, in 1853, became homesick for his wife and children, began to drink, and resigned from the army. The outbreak of the Civil War found him clerking in his brother's leather shop at Galena.

Appointed a colonel and rapidly promoted to a brigadier general of Illinois Volunteers, he quickly established his uniqueness among the federal generals as a fighter and as a winner.

In February 1862, his troops took Fort Henry and Duneless (where he gained his nickname in response to a request for an armistice: "No terms except an unconditional and immediate surrender").

His leadership at Shiloh proved dismal. But in the Vicksburg campaign in 1862-63, at Chattanooga, and in the final conflict with General Robert E. Lee in Virginia, Grant earned his reputation for military effectiveness as well as the rank of general, unused by Congress since 1779.

An inevitable Presidential nominee in 1868, Grant professed no real party affiliation, disliked politics, and resisted giving up his lifetime salary as general.

Upon his virtually inevitable election, he surrounded himself with a series of corrupt and mediocre friends who contributed to poor administrative choices.

At the same time, he took steps to ensure the public credit, to fight inflation, and to frustrate the efforts of gold gamblers and currency racketeers.

He retained his reputation for personal honesty amidst the galling criticism of the corruption of personal associates.

Most important to a group of revisionist historians, he may also have done a respectable job in his Reconstruction efforts.

The emerging view is that Reconstruction is best seen as a continuation of warfare in light of the hostilities that occurred for a decade following 1865 between former soldiers from both the confederate and union sides, essentially struggling to ensure the survival of the purposes for which the Civil War was joined: the maintenance of the union, and real freedom for the former slaves. The revisionist historians believe that Grant as President effectively fought to give reality to the 14th and 15th Amendments protecting all citizens in the exercise of their constitutional rights.

Confronting a situation not unlike that Lincoln faced in 1861, he requested and exercised special powers to deal with disorder—using language and arguments similar to those of the Great Emancipator himself.

These historians find that Grant is much less to blame for transgressions than earlier Southern writers once thought, and that his purpose was not to make unnecessary and continued war on the people of the South, but rather to assure the survival of the concept and the realities of both freedom and union.

LOSES CONTROL OF CAR

It may well be, therefore, as his service as President in 1868-76 is reconsidered and compared to that of any of his successors—in either efforts or results regarding civil rights—Grant will move up dramatically in the eyes of historians, to the undoubted relief of those in Illinois disturbed by the identity of the state with the traditional view of his Presidential years.

Firm chosen for GC insurance survey

A study of Granite City's insurance program with a view toward updating existing policies to assure full coverage will be made by the Wightman Insurance Agency, Inc., of Clayton, Mo., under an agreement proposal presented to the City Council.

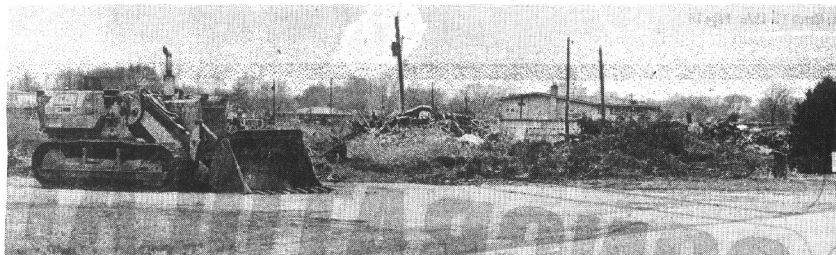

Council members approved the agreement on a recommendation by Alderman Ronald Coleman of the Seventh Ward, chairman of the council's Finance Committee, who said the Wightman Agency will make the survey without cost to the city.

The city called bids on a proposal for the insurance study and received one other offer to make the survey for a fee of $800, the council was told.

City officials noted that some city property may not be fully covered because a study of coverage on all city property has not been made in recent years.

The Wightman firm will check existing policies, appraise the value of city property and make recommendations as to what is needed to provide full insurance coverage.

SENATE CANDIDATE
One of two aspirants for the 56th Illinois Legislative District's Republican nomination to the Illinois Senate next Tuesday is Miss Gertraude Wittig, a biology professor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Statement of Policy by Judge Horace Calvo

My opponent has repeatedly made comments that I did not receive the endorsement of certain lawyers in a poll conducted in Springfield.

I refer to this only to point out the real facts concerning this. They are these:

1. My opponent has never been a Judge, consequently, he is unable to appreciate the problem that a Judge has in endeavoring to balance the rights of the public as opposed to the individual desires of members of the bar.
2. I would be the first to admit that I have been criticized by certain lawyers because I have insisted that cases not be delayed; that Court proceedings begin and end within established hours and because I have refused to lend myself to the will of certain lawyers who desired rulings not consistent with the rights of the public in certain instances.
3. If elected, I shall continue to do this, even if by so doing, I receive the ill will of lawyers who would desire that I do otherwise. I feel that my primary obligation as a Judge is to essentially protect the rights of the public and not let myself be manipulated by certain lawyers desirous of controlling the Court. If these lawyers now join my opponent to seek my defeat, I can only submit the matter to the will of the electorate.

In any event, I pledge if elected, that I will not yield to the pressure of any group or lawyer's organization which would endeavor to manipulate my Court or my decision. Those offended by this may continue to oppose me.

Tighten control of drug treatment

Illinois Dangerous Drugs Commission (DDC) Executive Director Thomas B. Kirkpatrick Jr. has presented the state's first drug program license to the Stonehedge Foundation in Peoria.

Stonehedge, the drug treatment division of the Peoria Area Mental Health Center, conducts both residential and outpatient programs, serving 100 opiate (heroin) dependent clients and 150 polydrug users. Included in the adult polydrug user population are "homebound" drug users, such as housewives who are encountering increased dependency on tranquilizers and sleeping medication, and industrial referrals, whose drug problems often surface as a result of lessened on-the-job functioning that comes to the attention of employers.

"Illinois is the third state in the country to require licensure of drug treatment programs," Kirkpatrick said, "and overall, our rules and regulations are probably the most stringent."

"We are pleased that Illinois is in the forefront of this regulatory service, which protects both taxpayers and program clients."

"In the past, it was possible for almost anyone to open up a drug program — without even minimal medical supervision unless methadone or other medication was used — and apply for state and federal funding, as well as charge patient fees."

"That can no longer happen in Illinois. We have quietly closed down three programs we found were not providing services in accordance with state standards, and we are in the process of closely investigating several others."

"Illinois taxpayers are entitled to responsible expenditure of drug treatment funds. The new licensing regulations will insure accountability on the part of all programs in Illinois — not only those which receive some government funding."

Stonehedge's License No. 001 is the first of more than 100 licenses the Dangerous Drugs Commission experts to issue this year. Appearing with Director Kirkpatrick at the presentation ceremony was Dangerous Drugs Commissioner David M. Law.

Hirsch burglary

A tool box containing about $129 in cash and three rolls of stamps was taken from under a counter at P. N. Hirsch Co., 1337 Nineteenth St., during a burglary reported Monday.

There were no signs of forced entry and officials believe entry may have been gained through a rear overhead door which had been left unlocked. The tool box taken was bolted under the counter. An inside lock was pried off the door to the alley and the door was believed used to exit.

including many of Nixon's hit Mercury releases, including "I'm Too Used to Loving You," "An Old Love Turned Memories," "Keep Your Back Porch Light On," "A Habit I Can't Break," and others.

Country People's magazine also has honored Nixon, naming him entertainer of the year.

The dance will begin at 9 p.m. Saturday and free refreshments will be provided. Set-ups also will be available. Tickets, costing $10 per couple, will be available at the door or may be purchased in advance from any Nameoki Township Women's League member.

'Zero Plus' phone service in area planned by Illinois Bell

A new telephone service called "Zero-Plus calling" will come to the Granite City area in the first quarter 1976, Illinois Bell Manager Ken Evers said Tuesday.

"Zero-Plus calling will enable telephone users to speed completion of their own person-to-person, collect, credit card and other calls requiring operator assistance by dialing the number themselves," Evers said.

"With Zero-Plus dialing, callers will dial '0' (plus the area code, when required) and then the seven-digit number they want to reach."

"As the call speeds on its way, the operator will come on the line to obtain the information needed (for example, the person being called on person-to-person calls, the credit card number or the third number to be charged). Zero-Plus calling will speed up calls for the telephone user and enable operators to handle many more calls than with the present system," Evers said.

The new Zero-Plus calling system will replace the old operator cord switchboard with push button consoles that will free operators from much of the manual work. Due to efficiencies of Zero-Plus calling, the number of offices now required throughout the state to handle long distance calls will be reduced.

In an effort to retain operator jobs where some long distance offices are closing, directory assistance offices are being consolidated and expanded.

"Telephone operations in Granite City will not be affected by these office changes," Evers said.

metropolitan area now have Zero-Plus calling, and we expect to have the system in service in the rest of the towns we serve in Illinois within the next three to four years.

This service is a good example of how Illinois Bell is using improved technology, developed by the Bell System, to gain greater efficiency and cost savings. These savings in turn help the company hold down the cost of telephone service to the customer," Evers said.

Madison Amvets host Division 5

Amvets posts and auxiliary units in the Illinois Amvets Fifth Division were entertained this week at the Madison Post 204 Home, 1242 Iowa St., Madison.

Representatives of posts in Mount Vernon, Harrisburg, Madison and Granite City attended the quarterly meeting and a buffet dinner which followed.

Mrs. Jackie Petras of Granite City, Fifth Division president, was in charge of the auxiliary's business session.

Receiving congratulations were Unit 51 (Granite City) and Unit 4 (Mount Vernon), whose records show "outstanding work in community service and child welfare," Mrs. Petras said.

A donation was authorized to the Carillon Fund, and nominations were made for 1976-77 divisional officers.

Among those nominated were Mrs. Glenda Brockman, president; Mrs. Trudy McGowan, senior vice-president; Mrs. Charleen Sanders, junior vice president; Mrs. Mary Rich, chaplain; and Mrs. Petras, treasurer.

Additional nominations will be accepted from the floor prior to the election at the May 16 meeting at Harrisburg. It was announced. Also reported were plans for the Illinois Amvets state executive meeting, scheduled April 3-4 at Rosemont.

As part of the program, Mrs. Petras presented a cash gift by the unit, a traditional gesture made to the divisional president at the third quarter meeting each year.

Other activities included the annual "Krazy Auction," with Adam Petras and Joe Papa serving as auctioneers.

Boone-Smith engagement told

Plans for a June wedding were disclosed with the engagement announcement of Miss Betty L. Smith and Daniel J. Boone by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Miskelley, 3811 Pontoon Road.

Parents of the prospective groom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boone, reside at 4719 Benning St.

Miss Smith attended Collinsville elementary schools and is now a student at Granite City High School North. Her fiancé, a North High School graduate, is presently employed at A. O. Smith Corp.

Both young people attend

Rural history program Sunday

St. John United Church of Christ, 2801 N. Meade Road, will present the 11th in its continuing series of Bicentennial worship services at the 9 a.m. and 10:20 a.m. services Sunday.

Steve Suss, St. John's Bicentennial publicity chairman, said Sunday's special program will feature Mrs. Georgia Engleke speaking on the development of the local rural area, specifically that known as Six Mile Prairie.

Mrs. Engleke's talk will cover the period of time between 1800 and 1850 in Sunday's historical review segment of the ongoing Bicentennial Commemoration.

In conjunction with her presentation, "old-time" hymns will be sung and the Chancel Choir will sing "Beulah Land," a hymn which was meaningful to the settlers in Six Mile Prairie.

As a sequel to Mrs. Engleke's program, Suss will give the Sunday, March 28 address, dealing with the development of Granite City from the early years of Kinderhook to the present community.

The public is invited to attend services at the church, the Rev. Paul R. Surbey, pastor, said.

Mrs. Ashford is hostess to class

Jaycees benefit matinee Saturday

The Granite City Jaycees will sponsor two benefit matinees Saturday at the Washington Theater, featuring a special showing of "The Snow Queen." Performances will be given at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.

Tickets, costing $1 each, may be purchased in advance from any Jaycee member, at the box office at the Washington Theater, or from Sherwin Williams Paint Store in Bellemore Village Shopping Center.

Those holding advance tickets will be eligible to receive a 10-speed bicycle as a special gift, according to Jaycee officers. Tickets also may be obtained Saturday at the theater box office, but may not be used in Adapted from Hans Christian Andersen's widely read fairy tale, "The Snow Queen," the movie version features special effects mixing animated scenes with those performed by actors and actresses.

Universal pictures has adapted the story for the screen for the enjoyment of the entire family, the Jaycee promoters said. Proceeds from the matinee shows will be used to further community projects sponsored by the Granite City Jaycees.

Home improvement project initiated

A Bicentennial project aimed at encouraging homeowners to improve their homes is being initiated by the Granite City Republican Women's Club, it was decided at the club's monthly meeting in the Granite City office of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District. Mrs. Elma Hoover and Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards were hostesses for the meeting. Mrs. Jane Reese, president, presided.

A California law was cited which allows persons improving their homes to have a percentage of the cost of the improvements taken off their personal property taxes was studied and the club decided to encourage state legislators to pass a similar law in Illinois. Mrs. Eva Meier, legislative chairman, was requested to draft a letter supporting such a law and the club will send copies to state, county and local elected officials. Edmund Firmer presented a program of slides and a tape on the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Two new members, Lucy Weaver and Mable Stuart, were welcomed. There also was one guest, Mrs. Pearl Campbell. Mrs. Reese announced the club will host the Madison County Federation of Republican Women's Club from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. April 19, at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue.

Counselor unit elects Skirball

Counselor education students at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are seeking a more influential voice in matters concerning their education, through the formation of the Counselor Education Department
Graduate Students Association.
The organization will provide a framework for better communication between faculty and students, said Brad Beckwith, one of three students elected by counselor education students as representatives to the department's faculty.

Larry Dahl and Thomas Posanski were also named as representatives and given the responsibility of establishing a committee for formation of the organization.

"As students we are consumers of education and interested in giving some feedback to the faculty on the product," Beckwith added.

Besides providing a channel for communication between students and faculty, the organization will represent students' interest in curriculum planning. Members also intend to develop seminars and workshops to meet special needs of students, said Bob Kampwirth, a counselor education student.

In addition, Beckwith said, assistance in job placement is planned. Through contacts established with the job market, the group hopes to offer advice to students on opportunities related to their training.

Since election of the representatives, the committee and other counselor education students have completed a draft of the organization's constitution and elected officers.

Officers are: chairman, James Monken of Belleville; vice-chairman, Bob Kampwirth,
Edwardsville; secretary, Teresa
Denson, East Alton; treasurer,
Laura Moon, Ferguson, Mo., and parliamentarian, Dick Skirball, Granite City.

Most of the interior was burned, but severe gutting was limited to the rear half of the building, which formerly housed The Purple Pepper Restaurant and Fitter's Market.

The heat was so intense at the northwest corner that it melted a pair of double metal doors and burned through the metal door frames.

On the outside west wall of the building, someone had written in green spray paint, "Burn Pig."

Eighteen volunteer firemen responded to the alarm and two pumpers were used to extinguish the blaze. Madison County sheriff's deputies were called to help direct traffic around the fire.

The fire was extinguished and the scene was secured at 6 a.m.
Wednesday.

The police officer who responded to the first alarm recalled seeing a white over black auto leaving the scene with four or five men in it.
Police are attempting to locate the auto.

Later Wednesday morning, an investigator for the state fire marshal's office and a representative of Advance Distributing Co., owner of the game machines, inspected the fire damage.

Dale Kymmer, a representative for Advance Distributing Co., said the machines were not insured. Bennett and Madison leased them from Advance, it was explained.

SPRING DISTRICT MEET
The Federated Belleville

St., Belleville. Dorothy Paddock, district chairman, will preside.

handicapped children in Granite City is to be held May 23 at Wilson Park by the Granite City Society for Crippled Children. Leo Lippe will be

The annual meeting of the organization has been set for June 9 at Charlie's Restaurant, with Mrs. Lily Chaboude, Louis Pasch and William P. Kinder in charge of arrangements.

Officers elected for 1976-77
are: Gertrude Luebben, president; Ralph Astorian, vice-president; Mrs. Chaboude, secretary; and Faith Christian, treasurer.

Mildred Talley served as nominating chairman.

A. E. "Tony" Michel is in charge of allocation recommendations.

Stuart Mills of the Quad-City special education district has shown the group photo slides of 1975 regional "special Olympics" at Belleville and a state

Nearly half of barges have grain

The St. Louis District, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, has released data on river traffic through the locks and dams along the Mississippi River. The statistics indicate that grain is the major commodity with almost 50 per cent of the tows making lockages.

Coal, while still taking a "back seat" to the grain movement, has increased in importance since the fuel crisis, and with new technology being developed to utilize this natural resource.

Records show that 1975 harvest season is the busiest for the locks and that most of the grain movement is made during that time. River transportation provides movement for from 10 million to 13 million tons through Locks and Dams 24 and 25 on the Upper Mississippi for twice that tonnage through Locks 26 at Alton and Locks 27 at Granite City.

The two routes of the Upper Mississippi and the Illinois merge at the latter locations to double the grain tobs.

Lowest months of lockage activity are those of the winter season, when ice and weather sometimes handicap the traffic flow.

March has traditionally been the start of the upswing in tow movement, and this is expected to continue through the summer and fall months unless restricted by flooding.

Alarms

and needing help, and they could set off the alarm and get help either from our police or a neighbor," Sasyk said.

The city started a burglar alarm system in March 1975 and currently has 102 businesses, schools and churches with the alarms installed.

Funds for the alarms from revenue sharing funds, with the businessmen paying a rental of $5 or $10 per month back into the fund.

The council declared March 22 through April 2 as Safety and Non-Litter Weeks. During this time the schools in Madison, in connection with the Madison Police Department, will conduct poster contests and other events highlighting safety and keeping the city clean.

A notice was received from an attorney stating that Ada Bush, 618 Mercedia St., Venice, is suing the city as a result of a July 19, 1975, accident when she allegedly fell in front of Normberg's department store on a grate. The matter was turned over to the legal department.

Mayor Sasyk reminded the council that beginning April 1, vehicle stickers for the city will cost $5 each.

It was reported that the tornado warning radio receiver may be obtained for $18 rather than $160. Tests are being made to check the reliability of the cheaper model for possible installation in schools.

A preliminary hearing on the city's suit of $4,700 against the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission (EOC) has been set for 1 p.m. Monday, March 22, in Edwardsville. The suit alleges items were taken from the West Madison Recreation Center which the city claims belongs to them.

Building permits were granted to Leonard Hellen, 1105 Madison Ave., to raze a shed and install storm windows at a cost of $2,500; Dennis Brick Co. to tackpoint a warehouse on Sixth Street for $1,000, and Robert Matoki, 801 Iowa St. for remodeling at $1,000.

Stolen baseball gear recovered

Two Edwardsville High School youths have been charged with stealing baseball equipment valued at $1,830 from the equipment trailer at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball field.

University police said all of the stolen equipment has been recovered. The names of the youths are being held pending completion of an investigation into other area burglaries.

Police said the trailer was broken into March 1, and equipment taken included a baseball pitching machine valued at $900. On the basis of a tip, SIUE investigators placed an Edwardsville residence under surveillance and followed a youth who left the residence Monday afternoon.

The youth later was arrested for spending on Bluff Road on the SIUE campus, and he allegedly confessed to officers that he was involved in the burglary of the equipment trailer. He was formally charged and was released under $2,500 bond.

The first implicated a second youth, who also was arrested Monday; he was released on his own recognizance.

Both youths are to appear in

5 Medicaid suspensions

Five new Medicaid suspensions were announced today by Illinois Public Aid Director James L. Trainor.

The five, which include four clinical laboratories, and one pharmacy, raise the total to 40 medical providers suspended by the Illinois Public Aid Department from the Medicaid the Circuit Court March 19. Police said all of the stolen equipment was recovered at the homes of the two.

program during the past three months.

Trainor said public aid investigators and auditors assembled evidence that the suspended Medicaid providers engaged in fraudulent billing practices and illegal kickback arrangements.

Public aid investigators and auditors say they uncovered evidence that full panel series of laboratory tests were performed routinely, when the tests were not ordered or needed.

When full series were needed, laboratories billed the department for each test individually, rather than as a series, to obtain increased public aid payments, it is alleged. Laboratories also billed for tests never performed, Trainor contended.

60 days without a traffic death

The number of traffic accidents occurring during February in the Quad-Cities increased sharply over that of the same month a year ago, but the month ended with fewer injury cases and without a traffic fatality.

The lack of traffic fatalities during the month brought to 60 days the total period in which the Quad-City area failed to record a death due to a traffic accident. There were no fatalities in the area during January.

The 60-day period is the longest in recent years in which there have been no fatal traffic accidents in the area.

In comparison, there was one traffic fatality in January 1975, and three fatalities during February 1975, for a total of four in the same period in which no fatalities occurred this year.

Statistics show a total of 53 accidents during February in which 73 persons were injured, compared with 38 accidents in which 76 persons were injured during the same month a year ago.

Last month's accidents brought to 107 the total number of mishaps occurring in the two months of this year, with 136 persons injured. During the same two months in 1975 there was a total of 77 accidents in which 126 persons were injured.

Single goal offsets 892 by cage Trojans

It seems unfair, but after Madison High School's 1975-76 basketball team had put together a season total of 892 field goals through the net in 20 contests, a lone basket ended abruptly the Trojans' Class A state championship dreams. The sectional tournament loss left MHS with a record of 25 wins and three defeats.

Destined to be eliminated itself in the super-section, Lebanon ousted the Trojans in the Vandalla sectional with a last-second field goal the two-point shot turned a potential 72-71 MHS win into a 73-72 defeat.

For the first time since Class A (750 or less enrollment) was initiated during the 1971-72 season, Madison had climbed past regional competition, defeating defending state champion Venice 68-64 in the title game, only to lose at the sectional level to a team that the Trojans had stopped 83-71 two months earlier.

"It was tough to lose," says Coach Larry Graham, "but I'm proud of the way we played and of our overall season performance."

Graham now has a seven-season record as the Trojan head mentor of 114 wins against 65 losses. Graham's assistants this season were Dave Hodges and John Fiskus.

Madison opened its season schedule with three straight wins—79-62 over St. Louis Southwest, 80-45 over GCHS South and 89-73 over Pacific, Mo.—before losing a cliff-hanger to Venice, 62-61.

The Trojans "picked up the pieces" and ran off five straight victories—77-50 over St. Louis McKinley, 85-79 over Lebanon, 72-60 over Pinckneyville, 79-55 over Southwestern Plaza and 75-50 over FKH Groves—only to meet defeat, 73-67, from the host Tigers in the championship game of the annual Edwardsville holiday classic.

The loss to Edwardsville served as a stimulant to the Trojans, who reeled off 17 straight victories before having their season go up in smoke in the sectional competition.

Madison's 17 straight wins were: 60-53 over Cahokia, 82-65 over Quincy Notre Dame, 73-60 over Pinckneyville, 65-53 over Belleville's St. Henry Prep, 62-57 over Bethalto, 76-53 over Dupu, 74-54 over Roxana, 87-42 over St. Paul of Highland, 74-66 over Livingston, 63-47 over GCHS North, 84-54 over Missouri's Riverview Gardens, 72-64 over East St. Louis, Assumption, 79-72 over St. Louis Northwest, 98-24 over St. Louis Roosevelt, 96-24 over Dupu, 69-42 over Freeburg and 70-61 over Venice.

Madison's season accomplishments included second place in the Edwardsville tourney, the Dupu tourney championship, and the Class A Freburg regional championship.

Niebur all-American wrestler second time

Western Illinois University wrestler John Niebur (Granite City High School South), became an all-American for the second consecutive time when he won five of seven matches at the 126-pound class for a fifth place showing in Division II Nationals during the weekend in Fargo, N. D.

Niebur earned All-American recognition last year as a freshman when he had a sixth-place finish in the national meet in East Stroudsburg, Pa.

"John is one of those guys who just hates to lose," said Western Coach Mitsuo Nakai, this week. "He always wants to win badly."

The sophomore grappler had a 14-6 regular season slate, while the five wins in the nationals pushed his season dual ledger to 19-8. After two years of WIU wrestling, he has 32 wins.

Earlier this season, Niebur broke a school record by scoring the most points in single match, defeating a MacMurray College wrestler, 30-7.

"John has showed a couple of things this year; he knows he can take just about anybody down, and he knows he can get away from just about anybody when he's down," Nakai praised.

Niebur started things off right last weekend when he won his first matches over South Dakota's Mike Thompson 10-4 and North Dakota's Brian Hansen, 12-4.

His first defeat was in the quarterfinals, when he was defeated by defending champion Alex Gonzalez of San Francisco State, 15-1. It was the second straight time that Gonzalez defeated Niebur in national competition. Gonzalez

Prior to the start of the season just ended, Graham said, "I'm worried this year about the team's defense and quickness." But his worry soon faded as Madison's defense held opponents to 1,626 points while the Trojans' fast-breaking offense racked up 2,070 points, including 280 charity tosses.

Rebounding was a key factor in Madison's success. MHS controlled the boards in 19 contests, including 11 straight games.

MHS has 1,077 rebounds to opposing schools' 897. Six senior Trojans played in their final season of high school basketball—64 Ron Jones, 6-6 Joe Gulash, 6-1 Edw. Garrett, 6-1 Curtis Bradley, 6-4 Anthony Canada and 6-0 Danny Bankhead.

Ron Jones paced the Trojans in individual performance. He led in rebound recoveries with 243, in field goals, 207 of 390, and in charity tosses through, 83 of 110, totaling 497 points.

His brother Randall Jones, 6-5 junior, had 209 rebounds and 446 points.

Bringing the ball downcourt as Madison's ballhandler was Gulash, who assisted in scoring on 174 occasions. Most of his assists were on inside passes to the Jones brothers.

Graham had predicted earlier that "if we can get each player to sacrifice and put the team above himself, we should have a good year."

Other than the Jones brothers, 13 Trojans continued to the team's success through their teaming.

Bankhead had 221 points, Garrett 198, Gulash 186, Ron Williams 114, Bradley 114, Rodney Jones 114, Canada 76, Keith King, 36, Clayton Harris 32, DeRodney Cochrell 25, Anthony King 20, Kenny Boyd 14 and Robert DeLoach, six.

Madison High School plans an all-sports banquet in May to capture the school's basketball, football, track, baseball and tennis teams.

state in 1972 and again won plaudits for efficient management.

"He gets along with people of both parties and has proved his capability to work with the legislature while managing a major department. Illinois would be much better served with Howlett in the governor's chair than it has been with Walker there, and we urge the Democrats to nominate him."

The Rock Island Argus in Sunday's edition said, "There is need for better management of state government. We believe Howlett would provide stronger leadership."

The Chicago Sun-Times of Sunday said Howlett is more likely than his opponent to work with the General Assembly to solve Illinois' pressing problems.

"We believe Howlett's political instincts are more in tune with the needs of all citizens," said the Sun-Times. "He is more oriented toward traditional Democratic Party concerns and goals of the best kind than is his opponent."

"We recommend him, confident that his nomination is preferable to his opponent's." The St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which circulates in Southern Illinois, also endorsed Howlett Sunday, commenting, "In Mr. Howlett, Democrats will find a candidate who is not likely to engage in government by crisis if he is elected."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat yesterday backed Howlett, saying that "in the 15 years he has served as secretary of state and state auditor, he has built a reputation as an able administrator. He has not engaged in running confrontations with legislators or other public officials. Unlike Gov. Walker, he has a capacity for cooperation."

The Champaign News Gazette on Tuesday endorsed Howlett, saying, "Much of his success was an ability to work with, not fight with, legislators, Republicans and Democrats alike. Illinois needs a new governor."

The Daily Journal of Springfield said this week, "Howlett has built a long record of public service. He has been a hard-working, efficient manager. We see Howlett as the better choice."

Office wins $25,000 grant blood award for River Fest

The Granite City District Office of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. has been cited for "noteworthy participation" in the company's national blood bank program.

The award was based on a high percentage of donors from the office at 3703 Namekne Road. The citation was signed by American Red Cross Chairman Frank Stanton and Metropolitan President Richard Shinn.

Metropolitan is regarded as the only major business in the country to have a national blood donor program. It provides for total blood needs of all employees and members of their families anywhere in the country.

In the 10 years of the program's existence, according to E. Ray Grisham, CLU district sales manager, more than 97,000 pints of blood have been donated. "Since our people have not used all the blood donated," he said, "a sizeable quantity has been made available to Granite City and other communities served by Cong. Melvin Price (Dem., 22nd Ill.) announced Tuesday that a $25,000 grant has been approved for continued federal support of the Mississippi River Festival.

The funds are provided through a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, an independent federal agency under the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities.

Cong. Price explained that the funds will be used to develop and implement a project to broaden the Festival's audience to include a larger segment of the bi-state community.

The Mississippi River Festival, a six-week series of summer concerts, has its home on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. It has in past years drawn nationally-known guest artists in the pop, rock, folk and symphony fields.

"The Mississippi River Festival has brought a new dimension to the life of area residents," Rep. Price said. "I am hopeful that this grant will help to generate still more interest in the Festival, particularly among residents on both sides of the river who never have taken the opportunity to enjoy the top-notch entertainment coming right to their door."

ARREST JUVENILES Two juvenile boys, ages 15 and 16, were arrested by police and face possible juvenile court action for allegedly attempting to break into the home of Frank Ebling, 1743 Edison Ave., at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday. A neighbor said the boys were seen on an enclosed porch trying to pry open a door to Ebling's house. They fled down an alley where police stopped them. A third youth, believed acting as a lookout, could not be located.

551,070 drivers in state are older than 65

According to statistics released this week by Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett, there are 551,070 licensed drivers in Illinois 45 years of age and older, including 341,900 men and 209,170 women. Of that total, 45,464 are 60 years old and over, with 33,216 men and 12,248 women. Howlett said that the total number of valid drivers licenses in the state at the end of 1975 was 6,390,368, with 3,475,954 men and 2,914,414 women. The statistics show more men have drivers licenses than women in each age group listed in the report. Greatest number of licensed drivers is in the 20 to 24 age group, with 467,320 men and 408,013 women for a total of 875,333. Closely following are the 25 to 29 age group, with 431,950 men and 389,960 women.

Oppose state 'rose colored' report on business climate

The Illinois Manufacturers' Association on Tuesday sharply challenged claims by the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development that the state business climate is good. The Illinois BED has published a newsletter to Illinois companies featuring its conclusion that the state ranks sixth among all states in industrial jobs gained since 1941. Orville Bergren, IMA president, said: "The fact that BED had to go back to 1941 to make the state look good is a sign of weakness. The growth in industrial jobs since 1941 is irrelevant to the present business climate and job loss problems in Illinois."

The IMA has stressed that, despite the many natural advantages that Illinois enjoys for manufacturers, statistics from two federal agencies show that the state is a large net loser of industrial jobs since 1967. For example, the U. S. Labor Department reported a net decline of 60,000 Illinois manufacturing jobs in the period 1967-74. Bergren said, "Illinois is losing manufacturing plants to other states. A new survey by Commonwealth Edison reveals that 497 Illinois industrial and commercial firms have recently decided to relocate; 300 of these are scattered throughout Northern Illinois, with the remaining 197 in Chicago."

"Aggressive competition from southern states offering attractive packages to industrial plants have added to the net loss of Illinois jobs. Recent huge increases in Illinois employer costs for workers' compensation and unemployment compensation benefits have made the business climate worse."

"Current Illinois workers' compensation premium rates per $100 of payroll are from 60 per cent to 100 per cent higher than comparable rates in the states of Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin or Missouri."

Bergren added, "The BED publication includes a number of statistics of dubious validity with no source listed. 'Despite many increases in new companies and jobs claimed by the BED, the Illinois unemployment rate, just released, is 8.7 per cent, which is 1.1 percentage points above the national average of 7.6 per cent."

"We suspect that this failure by the state to face the facts, and its insistence that all is well with the Illinois business climate, are based on political considerations."

"Several Illinois companies have moved to Wisconsin recently."

"Wisconsin, under Democratic Governor Pat Lucey, admitted in 1973 that it had a bad climate for business, and prevailed on the legislature to amend Wisconsin's tax laws to give industry a $140 million annual tax break."

"It is too bad that Illinois' government will not admit that it has a problem with jobs in this state."

Ok method to name at-large delegates

John P. Touhy, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Illinois, announced Monday that the Compliance Review Commission of the Democratic National Party has approved the method of selecting 14 delegates-at-large and 11 alternate delegates at large from Illinois to the Democratic National Convention.

The at-large delegates and alternate delegates will be chosen at a meeting of the Democratic State Convention upon nominations by the delegates who will be elected from congressional districts on Tuesday, March 16.

The at-large delegates and alternate delegates will be divided among the candidates for nomination for President based on their proportions of the delegates elected from districts.

Notice of the nominating meeting and the text of the applicable rules will be mailed two weeks in advance of the meeting to all the delegates and alternate delegates elected from districts, and also the media.

Periodontal seminar at SIUE

A seminar entitled Basic Principles of Periodontal Therapy will be presented March 17 and 18 at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Dental Medicine.

Three SIUE professors will instruct the course. They are Dr. Philip M. Hoag, chairman of the department of periodontology, Dr. Neal W. Koller, assistant professor in the department of periodontology, and the dean of the School of Dental Medicine, Dr. Stanley P. Hazen.

The course is designed to provide the basic information and techniques necessary to diagnose and treat early to moderately advanced periodontal disease, according to Dr. Richard Coy, director of advanced educational programs at the SIUE dental school.

He said periodontal treatment involves all the gums, tissues and bone that hold the teeth in their sockets. Patients commonly call periodontal disease "pyorrhea," Dr. Coy added.

"This two-day course is in the treatment of gum and bone problems to prevent disease and restore dental health," Dr. Coy said. "It will also involve the way teeth come together in biting to prevent more problems."

Secretary Michael Howlett

"I seek the Office of Governor because we want to extend the economy and efficiency we have practiced to a broader area of Government. But I realize that this is not an end in itself. My objective is not only to save the taxpayers' money but to make it available for the human needs of our people. We want to save money by sound administration so that we will have more money to improve the education of our children."

"... To provide for the poor who cannot support themselves,

"... To train the able-bodied on the public aid rolls so they can make their own contribution to society and break the relief cycle,

"... To provide the best in mental health care so that patients will not be merely kept in custody but will be cured and restored to society,

"... To make Illinois No. 1 among the states in the convenience and safety of its highways,

"... To see that the public safety is maintained by law, order, and justice.

"We cannot afford to waste a dollar in inefficient administration if we are to give people the services they need and deserve ...

"I will never make a promise to the people I cannot keep. I will not lie. I will not mislead. I will not attempt to manage, manipulate or otherwise 'use' people."

"As Governor, I intend to provide leadership that will make our 11 million citizens one people ... not Cook County and Downstate ... not rich or poor ... not urban or rural ... not young or old ... not black or white ... but one people."

Michael J. Howlett

A proven record of economy, efficiency, integrity and service to the people of Illinois.

As a State Senator, I am proud to announce my support of Secretary of State Mike Howlett for Governor.

Mike Howlett will be a good Governor. These are some of the issues in which he believes.

1. He opposes the increasing tax burden with which Illinois taxpayers are afflicted. Howlett believes that by efficient government we can reduce the state/local tax burden.

2. Mike Howlett favors bringing Illinois' minimum wage laws into conformity with federal standards and pay rates.

3. Mike Howlett believes Illinois should have a State Freedom of Information Act.

4. Mike Howlett opposes any tuition increases at our universities.

Howlett plans labor-business task force to boost economy

By application of sound business techniques, Illinois can cut downstate government waste, create a favorable economic climate and stop the loss of jobs and industry to other states, Michael J. Howlett, Secretary of State, said Wednesday.

Howlett is running for governor in the March 16 Democratic primary. He addressed a luncheon of business and professional supporters of his campaign in Chicago.

As governor, he said, he would appoint a task force, with membership from business, labor and education, to coordinate existing agencies and prepare an overall plan for Illinois' economic development.

"While I was auditor of public accounts and secretary of state, we found ways in both offices to provide more and better services with fewer personnel," said Howlett.

"We used much the same techniques that business and the professions use to improve their product or service at a lower cost to the buyer."

"Since I began running for governor, I have systematically analyzed the incumbent governor's administration, program by program, showing where it has been mismanaged and suggesting programs for improvement. Economic development is a key area."

"Illinois' economy has been sliding downhill for three years while the state administration has put the blame on Washington."

"Illinois has been losing plants, and losing jobs to other states."

"In January 1973, when the incumbent governor took office, 192,000 were out of work in Illinois, 3.8 per cent of the work force. Last month, 439,700 were out of work, 8.7 per cent. The national rate was 7.6 per cent."

"Before this administration, Illinois unemployment was always lower than the national average. Suddenly, our unemployment rate is higher, and we are losing jobs faster."

"We must reverse the trend. We can do it. We have the natural resources, the business know-how and a diversified industry with a skilled labor force."

"What we need is active, resourceful leadership from the state government," Howlett declared.

"We now have a Department of Business and Economic Development which focuses on foreign trade. Our Industrial Development Authority concentrates its lending activities mostly in rural areas."

"The Department of Local Government Affairs has attempted in some ways to coordinate economic planning."

"But our approach has been too fragmented. We need a task force to find what it takes to restore our economic health and prepare a plan to do it."

"As governor, I would appoint such a task force, drawing upon business, labor and the academic community for talent."

"As secretary of state, I have more than 200 volunteers on 27 advisory boards and committees. They are drawn heavily from the business and professional community. They serve without pay. They help us do a better job for the public."

"Within government itself, I will establish a permanent air through Sunday between programs to remind viewers that public television is not government supported and is largely dependent on membership contributions. Channel 9 has scheduled special programs all week during the membership drive. Quad-Cityans are calling 314-725-2460 to pledge.

Two injured in auto accident

James Stuart, 19, and Terry Jackson, 18, both of 2139 Lee Ave., were injured in an accident at Route 152 and State Aid Route 35 this week and were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Stuart was admitted to the hospital with injuries to his neck

Chickenpox season is here

March traditionally brings spring weather, good wind for flying kites and chicken pox.

According to Dr. Joyce Lashof, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, chicken pox is a late winter-early spring disease, with the peak incidence occurring in March.

"This March seems to be no exception," she said, "as we have been receiving reports of chicken pox outbreaks in schools throughout the state."

While chicken pox is extremely communicable, it is a mild disease in children. There is no vaccine that will prevent chicken pox, and, generally, when one member of a family contracts the disease, it will spread throughout the household.

"The only thing parents can do," Dr. Lashof said, "is keep the patient comfortable and apply a calamine-based lotion to the rash to keep the child from scratching."

The incubation period is two to three weeks, commonly from 13 to 17 days. Children should be kept home from school for about one week after the rash first appears. While in rare instances a child may develop serious complications from chicken pox, the great majority recover sufficiently in a week to resume normal activities.

Steelworkers endorse four candidates

United Steelworkers Union, Local 4804, has endorsed four candidates in the Tuesday primary election.

The endorsements were given Sam Wolf of Granite City, and Joe Lucio, Edwardsville, for state representative on the Democratic ticket, State Sen. Sam Vadalabene for re-election on the Democratic ballot and Bob Wallenbach for election as Democratic precinct committeeman in the 14th precinct in Granite City.

The endorsements were voted during a meeting of union local members last week, according to Wallace Smith, recording secretary.

Gun charge

Police at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have filed three charges against Christopher J. Kirchofer, 18, Edwardsville Route 56, allegedly involved in an accident on the SIUE campus Sunday morning.

Kirchofer, taken to the Madison County Jail, is charged with unlawful use of a concealed weapon, driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident with property damage. He was arrested while asleep in his car on a westbound ramp leading from Highway 157 to Interstate 270.

University police alleged his car struck a traffic sign on North Circle Drive and dragged the sign about 100 feet. The impact broke the radiator of the 1963 auto.

Investigators charged he had a loaded .22-caliber pistol.

HURT ON MOTORCYCLE
Don Dagnia, 24, Maryville, was injured in a motorcycle accident and was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital during the weekend with abrasions and a cut to his right foot. X-rays were taken and he was admitted.

Gov. Walker declares March Disaster Preparedness Month

"Appreciative of the time and effort volunteers so unselfishly give to aid emergency victims, I, Dan Walker, Governor of the State of Illinois, proclaim March 1976 Disaster Preparedness Month."

With these words Governor Walker gives credit to the thousands of volunteers throughout Illinois who volunteer their time and energies to helping their communities prepare for disaster.

March marks the change from the reasonably disaster-free winter to the spring's threat of floods and tornadoes. Throughout the year, Illinois is subject to disaster of one kind or another: explosions, blizzards, flash floods, hazardous materials incidents: all of which can threaten the people of Illinois.

However, it is the spring of the year when the most severe tornadoes occur and when the rivers of Illinois frequently impose themselves upon our communities.

Since early in 1973, Illinois has seen more than 60 of its 102 counties declared a disaster area by the President of the United States. Over a billion dollars in damages have been caused by these disasters and millions of dollars have been spent by the Federal government in helping local communities recover.

It is tempting to take the attitude that "it can't happen here," but try to tell that to the Mayors of Decatur (tornado and flood in 1974), Canton (tornado in 1975) or anyone of dozens of other local officials whose communities have been devastated. Disasters can happen and most probably will to some communities in Illinois during this, our Bicentennial year, the governor said.

If a disaster does occur, the state is prepared to help local communities cope. The Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency (ESDA) coordinates the state agency response to disaster and if the needs cannot be met with local and state resources, state ESDA will call upon the federal government for help: all the way to asking for a Presidential Disaster Declaration.

Although the state and federal governments stand ready to respond to disasters anywhere in Illinois, the responsibility for coping with disaster lies with the local government.

In order to provide the best response to a disaster, most local governments in Illinois have established a local Emergency Services and Disaster Agency or Civil Defense group.

There are over 600 such organizations in Illinois composed of thousands of people, most of whom volunteer their time. These volunteers serve as severe weather watchers, auxiliary police, on rescue squads, on SCUBA teams, as emergency communications personnel.

They have trained and equipped themselves to deal with problems of a community wide nature that overtax the existing governmental resources. When Canton was hit by a tornado in July 1975, over 1,000 volunteers came from all over Illinois to offer their aid and assistance.

E. Ertle Jones, director of the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency said, "The keystone of effective disaster assistance is the responsiveness of local government."

Each community in Illinois should prepare itself for a disaster it hopes will never happen. Only through adequate prior preparation can the trauma of disaster be mitigated. "To be forewarned is to be forearmed."

Victor H. Koenig, coordinator of the Granite City Emergency Services and Disaster Agency, said the following proclamation has been issued by Gov. Walker:

"Just as, 200 years ago, the colonists rallied to the call of freedom, Americans join together today to help others in times of disaster.

"Through the years American volunteers have responded to the needs of calamity victims and in a world that sometimes seems ridden with catastrophes disaster preparedness is of utmost importance."

"Because volunteers are most effective in emergency situations if they are available near the disaster site, Illinois' Emergency Services and Disaster Agency trains and strengthens local disaster units. ESDA also coordinates all state services to respond quickly when emergency strikes."

"But ESDA is only as strong as the local coordinators and their volunteers. In Illinois' 550 accredited Emergency Services and Disaster Units only about 180 coordinators receive salaries and fewer than 30 are full-time coordinators. Approximately 40,000 volunteers are members of these units."

"Appreciative of the time and effort volunteers so unselfishly give to aid emergency victims, I, Dan Walker, Governor of the State of Illinois, proclaim March 1976 Disaster Preparedness Month."

5 seek 2 House Democratic nominations

REP. JOE E. LUCCO

State Representative Joe E. Lucco (D-Edwardsville) is seeking re-election to the Illinois House of Representatives from the 56th District.

Lucco represents most of Madison County and also Canton Township in St. Clair County.

"He is recognized by most of his colleagues in the House as one of the most forceful and influential first-year members to come to the House in many years. He established himself early as an articulate and persuasive speaker on the house floor," a campaign spokesman said.

Rep. Lucco was appointed by House Speaker William Redmond to the Committee on Elementary-Secondary Education, Higher Education and County and Township.

He also was appointed as a member of the Illinois Energy Resources Commission and had a part in the passing of the Coal-Conn. plan, to be built soon at New Athens.

He also worked for a coal fluidization plant sought for the East Alton-Wood River area. He was co-sponsor with Rep. Katz of House Bill 911 which designated 911 as the emergency phone number to call; it is to become statewide.

Lucco co-sponsored a new safety bill for coal miners and was instrumental in education and township bills of interest to his district.

Rep. Lucco comments, "I hope to help the local economy by the creation of jobs. I am working on abolishment of the property tax as a source of revenue for schools."

"I am hopeful of helping those people who are in need of emergency assistance, and yet to better supervise the state's aid program so as to limit the expenditures to those in real need. I am an advocate of jobs instead of direct financial grants."

Lucco is a full-time legislator and has a full-time office at 109 Purcell St., Edwardsville.

He is a former Edwardsville teacher, coach and school administrator and served on the staff of the Madison County Educational Service Region.

He and his wife have a daughter who is active in school programs in Evanston and a son who is a lawyer in Texas.

A native of Poca, Md., Lucco is a graduate of Greenville College and holds a master degree from the University of Illinois, majoring in history, economics and political science.

He has been active in the Democratic party since 1934. He was president of the Young Democratic Club in 1938 but never ran for an elective office until the 1974 primary. He was an educator 40 years.

Rep. Lucco has taken stands opposing gun control, the present tax concept and the property safety-health law administration.

He favors directing present lottery receipts to the funding of schools, and urges restoration of the death penalty for some crimes.

REP. SAM W. WOLF

State Representative Sam W. Wolf of Granite City, currently serving in the legislature by appointment, is seeking election to a full two-year term this year. He is a candidate in next Tuesday's Democratic primary.

Regarding the position as a "responsible office" and pledges to "devote my activities to the service of the people in the 56th District."

"Our district has a potential development second to none in the St. Louis metropolitan area."

"Many problems can be seen in accomplishing industrial development and commercial growth. However, if they are tackled one by one in a systematic manner, the results can be rewarding and successful."

"I believe that with my long business background—together with an understanding of the needs of the area—I can serve as representative in a highly efficient manner."

"My years of experience both as an Army officer and as an executive officer in business, coupled with having had the experience of supervising and promoting my own business, provide me with the many diverse qualifications required for such an elective office," Rep. Wolf comments.

"I am presently assigned to Legislative Committees, such as the Environment, Energy and Natural Resources Committee, the Motor Vehicles Committee, the Banks, Savings and Loan Associations Committee."

"I am a past president of the Granite City Board of Realtors, a past president of the Granite City Kiwanis Club and presently a director of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce."

"I was elected as a delegate to the Mid Term Conference of the Democratic National Committee in 1974, and elected as a national committeeman of the Democratic National Committee in June 1975."

"I attended both elementary and high schools in Venice, and completed numerous short-term special courses at Washington University and at Northwestern University."

He was elected Democratic committeeman of Precinct 23 in Granite City in 1966 and was elected secretary of the Granite City Democratic Central Committee in 1968.

In 1970, Wolf was elected secretary of the Granite City Madison County Democratic Central Committee.

He is secretary-treasurer of the Cochrane-Wolf Agency, a real estate and insurance firm.

Wolf was born in Venice and has lived in Granite City for the past 35 years.

Wolf has been endorsed for election to the legislature by such groups as the Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council, AFL-CIO, American Federation of Teachers, Local 743 and United Steelworkers Local 694.

Veteran of five years' service in World War II, he entered as a private and was discharged as a chief warrant officer. He served overseas in both the Asiatic Pacific and European areas.

MRS. ANITA KENDALL EFFIMOFF

Mrs. Anita Kendall Effimoff, 2800 Michigan Ave., resource teacher at Emerson Grade School, is a candidate in the Democratic primary election March 16 for state representative.

Her duties at Emerson involve student learning disability, emotional disturbance and social maladjustment.

She is the wife of Vasil Effimoff, director of pupil personnel services of the Granite City School District. Their son, Jim, 14, is a sophomore at Granite City High School South.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Kendall, reside in Granite City.

Mrs. Effimoff emphasizes "economy in government" as a campaign issue. She regards her experience as helpful to General Assembly service.

Her affiliations include the Council for Exceptional Children, the CEC's Division for Children with Learning Disabilities, the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, St. Louis Symphony Women's Association and Mississippi River Festival.

She also is active in the Illinois Education Association, the University Women, Minerva Reading Club, Granite City Rotary, Ann, Gabriel White Springs, First United Presbyterian Church, St. Louis Zoo Association and Missouri Historical Society.

Mrs. Effimoff served for ten years on the Granite City animal shelter board and has been secretary for 14 years of the Granite City Scholarship Foundation.

Participating in her first campaign for public office, she notes that two of the three St. Clair County state legislators are women.

She attended Granite City High School and Washington University, and has 200 college credit hours. She is a former English teacher at Coldidge Junior High School.

Mrs. Effimoff favors full school funding open primary elections, handgun control and increased prison terms.

She has asserted that her roles as a wife and mother could be useful in the legislature, which she believes has failed to adequately assess the impact of its actions on family life.

Describing herself as a non-politician, she comments that politicians have run the state government for too long. She advocates social reform and improved fire practices.

Mrs. Effimoff in campaign talks has called for strict law enforcement, biennial state budgeting, outlawing of double governmental jobs, reimbursement of crime victims, reform of income tax process and expanded efforts to attract industry.

estate and insurance business in 1954, he worked for a mortgage company as a loan officer and then as assistant vice-president.

He has served in the Illinois House of Representatives since October.

"I graduated from Granite City High School, finished courses at SIU and Hadley Tech and then as assistant vice-president in the Marine Corps Reserves, 1954-64."

"I am married and my wife, daughters and I have lived in Pontoon Beach for 14 years. Prior to that, I lived in Granite City all of my life."

An opponent of property taxes, Whitsett cites state failure to carry out proposals to use lottery proceeds to finance schools and to utilize the income tax to help relieve local taxes.

He favors legislation to require criminals to reimburse their victims, including longtime work to provide such funds.

Whitsett has pledged to be a full-time legislator.

Whitsett, 32, Alton, a 3M Company sales engineer, seeks a Democratic nomination for representative in the 56th Legislative District.

He was prompted to seek public office because of interest in the American system of government.

McPike said, "The lack of trust in public officials, which culminated with the resignation of former President Nixon," brought him into the political arena.

"You cannot restore this lost faith by concentrating strictly on the Presidency. You build trust by electing dedicated people into every level of government."

"The candidate selected for the legislative seat vacated by Horace Calvo was chosen on the basis of personal friendships and not on qualifications."

"Candidates from various parts of the district like Madison-Verona, Canton, Nameoki and Alton-Godfrey were not given serious consideration."

"People deserve a legislator highly qualified, sensitive to their needs and responsive to their wants."

The candidate is the son of John H. McPike of Alton, secretary-treasurer of Carpenters' Local 1068.

McPike is married and has three school-aged children attending Alton public schools.

In 1965, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in engineering from the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., and in 1970 added a bachelor's degree in general business from the University of Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Fla.

McPike earned a master's degree in economics from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He served as an officer and pilot in the Navy from 1965 to 1970.

McPike lists his 1975 personal income as $21,589 and his net worth at $32,868. He has called for all officials and candidates to disclose such information about themselves.

Pledging to be a full-time legislator, he cites extensive labor backing, including the Illinois Federation of Teachers, Illinois Education Association and 23rd District AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education.

The candidate cites his business experience, education, labor contacts and service as a naval officer as giving him broad qualifications to serve well in the General Assembly.

McPike favors the proposed Columbia-Waterloo airport, full school funding, Alton locks and dam replacement, a civic center at SIUE and designation

LOUIS WHITSETT

Louis Whitsett, 3 Westgate Drive, is a Democratic primary candidate for state representative of the 56th Legislative District.

Whitsett says, "With due consideration to the local government I serve, it is my duty to seek the nomination as an independent Democrat for representative."

"The state legislature has passed laws that place hardships on local government, due to lack of knowledge of the functions and problems that we face."

"The 56th District is a compact, industrialized area with capable local government officials. They need the legal authority to accomplish their own development of industry, commercial growth, sewers, etc., with the assistance of their tax dollars that the state holds with many strings attached."

"I elected, I will dedicate my career to improve local government and to reduce the control by the state, as our forefathers intended it to be."

"If I lose, then the issues will have been brought to the attention of the public and I can continue to serve locally without anyone saying I have deserted them."

"We recognize the difficulty that a Democrat faces in Madison County without the endorsement of the Central Committee. However, I did not seek the committee's endorsement because there was little chance it would consider me."

"I prefer to rely on the people's choice in an open primary and to meet the machine head-on, as I have in the past."

"My record speaks for itself: Lifelong resident of this area. Elected and served two terms as Democratic committeeman. Elected town clerk of Nameoki Township."

"Elected supervisor of Nameoki Township."

"Then elected to the Madison County Board twice, serving on the Parks and Recreation Committee, the Executive Committee, Four Township Sewer Committee, the Building and Zoning and Subdivision Committee, and the Education Committee."

"Chairman of Parks and Recreation, and Education and Museum, and appointed as chairman of the Madison County Bicentennial Commission."

Whitsett continued, "I have served as first vice-president of Retail Clerks Local 435. I am a member of Lodge 682, Tool and Die-Makers, and Masonic Lodge 677; American Legion, Knights of Columbus, Township Officials of Illinois, Illinois Association of County Board Members, Illinois Welfare Association, Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, the Truth and Action Party of Nameoki Township and the Lions Club of Pontoon Beach."

State police suggest anti-theft precautions

Crimes of burglary and theft, like the economy, tend to depend upon supply and demand, and items that are in demand and easily disposed of for cash are more often the target for burglars, Illinois State Police officials at Maryville headquarters at Maryville warned Tuesday.

Such things as cameras, guns, jewelry, and small appliances are relatively easy to carry off and tend to have high monetary value.

Citizen band radios, because of increased consumer demand, have become a lucrative target of thieves. Thefts are so numerous that many automobile insurance companies have either increased their rate or refused to cover the potential loss of citizen band radios installed in vehicles insured by them, the officers said.

Anti-burglary precautions will not guarantee that a person won't be ripped off, but certain preventive measures will make a thief think twice before he tries your house or car.

Captain Albert J. Bertagnoli, District 11 commander at Maryville, suggests that there are several things that people can do.

1. Security devices are of no value if they aren't used. Lock your doors when you leave your house or car, even if you will be away only for a few minutes.

2. Don't allow garage doors to stand open when you are gone. An open door is an invitation to burglars.

3. Valuables should never be left in view in the passenger area of two separate Southern Illinois University.

He has called for increased attention to senior citizens, including state funding of community centers serving the aged. He proposes WPA-type government programs to increase the employment level.

Position papers issued during his campaign urge legalization of beer for college campuses, federal income tax reform, upgrading of legislative ethics, and government action to minimize fluctuations in retail food prices.

McPike is married and has three school-aged children attending Alton public schools.

In 1965, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in engineering from the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., and in 1970 added a bachelor's degree in general business from the University of Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Fla.

McPike earned a master's degree in economics from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He served as an officer and pilot in the Navy from 1965 to 1970.

McPike lists his 1975 personal income as $21,589 and his net worth at $32,868. He has called for all officials and candidates to disclose such information about themselves.

Pledging to be a full-time legislator, he cites extensive labor backing, including the Illinois Federation of Teachers, Illinois Education Association and 23rd District AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education.

The candidate cites his business experience, education, labor contacts and service as a naval officer as giving him broad qualifications to serve well in the General Assembly.

McPike favors the proposed Columbia-Waterloo airport, full school funding, Alton locks and dam replacement, a civic center at SIUE and designation area of a car. If a thief sees them, he will have them.

4. Never park your car in remote areas of shopping centers. While you are shopping inside, someone may be outside shopping for your property.

5. If you are in the market for a citizen band radio, consider purchasing portable mounting brackets. This type of installation will cost a little more but it allows for the quick removal of the radio to a place of safekeeping when you are out of the vehicle.

6. Since CB radios are usually attached to the dashboard of the vehicle, they are extremely vulnerable to theft. If the unit is not portable, the additional expense of any auto burglar alarm installed in the vehicle may in the long run be money well spent.

7. Law-enforcement computer systems have proven themselves invaluable in tracing stolen items, but the police need your help. Take the time to record the serial numbers of appliances, cameras, citizen band radios, and other valuables. If there is no serial number and the article is large enough, etch your drivers license number, or social security number somewhere on it. If the item was stolen you can report the number to the police. A computer check of an identification number will give the police immediate information as to whether the item is stolen or not.

A criminal is successful only if; first he has the opportunity to commit a crime and second, if the risk of being caught and punished is low. By following these and other common sense precautions, the public can effectively reduce criminal opportunity and increase the risk of apprehension.

Harris running for secretary of state

State Senator William C. Harris is unopposed for the Republican nomination March 16 as Illinois secretary of state.

The Pontiac legislator, current Republican leader in the Illinois Senate, has said during this year's campaigning that he will seek legislation changing the auto license display deadline from winter to summer.

"Car owners freezing their hands to put on new plates or standing in line shivering in the middle of winter to buy new plates is unnecessary," Harris said.

WILLIAM C. HARRIS

The deadline would go into effect in 1978 and would be implemented by issuing a six-month tag in January of that year.

The senator said that his proposal would dovetail with present state plans to switch to five-year license plates for the state's estimated 5.3 million passenger cars. That legislation is to be introduced in the spring session of the Assembly.

Harris calls the plan "my first priority as secretary of state."

He predicted that Senate political honesty resolutions which failed last year "will stand a better chance of passage this year."

The resolutions would require monthly pay for lawmakers instead of one or two years in advance, and prohibit "double-dipping" by lawmakers — being on two public payrolls at once.

Harris comments, "I think that this is the kind of thing that should not be written into the constitution but should be handled statutorily."

Sen. Harris, 54, represents the 37th Senatorial District.

Before becoming minority leader, he served as chairman of the Senate Committee on Committee and commission assignments.

Harris was chairman of the Appropriations Division of the Senate Committee on Public Finance and a member of the Illinois Budgetary Commission, Senate Committees on Agriculture, Executive, Public Utilities and Senate Operations, and also the Revenue Division of Public Finance.

Harris has served 22 years in the legislature, having been elected in 1954 to the House of Representatives, where he served six years. In 1960, he was elected to the Senate.

In private life, Harris has been a district agent for the State Mutual Life Assurance Co. He attended Michigan State University after four years' Navy service in World War II. Harris served as charter president of the Pontiac Jaycees.

He ran in 1968 for the post of state auditor.

294 Venice students honored

A total of 294 students in the Venice grade and high schools are being awarded attendance certificates for good attendance which includes those not having been absent more than one day in the fourth six weeks' marking period which ended Feb. 27.

The students receiving the awards in grades K-6 took their certificates home in their report cards last week. The students in grades 7-12 will receive their certificates in the mail.

The program for improving attendance is sponsored jointly by the schools and the Title VII Pilot Team funded for 1975-76 under the Emergency School Aid Act.

The attendance in the grade school for a comparable period last year was up approximately four per cent from 88.61 to 92.81.

In the high school, it was down 1 per cent from 87.79 to 86.43.

The over-all attendance was up two per cent from 88.34 to 90.50 per cent according to Robert N. Vickers, superintendent.

The purpose of the program is to encourage students to continue to attend school more regularly and to improve the relationship between the home and the school.

Madison Jr. Tamms concert, social Sunday

Southeastern European music and dancing, performed in colorful costumes, will fill the auditorium at Granite City High School South at 3 p.m. Sunday, when the Happy Strings Croatian Junior Tamburitza of Croatian Fraternal Union Velebit Lodge 222 of Madison presents their third annual concert.

Based on the theme—"An Afternoon of Strings and Things"—the local folk singers and dancers will be joined in presenting the concert by similar ethnic musical groups, including the Croatian Gary (Ind.) Junior Tamburitza and the Veseli Faidah of St. Louis.

Following the concert at South High, the gala event will continue at 5 p.m. at the Croatian Home, 1000 Madison Ave., Madison, where refreshments will be served and music for dancing will be played by Vince's International Polka Band.

A capacity crowd is expected Sunday, matching last year's record-breaking audience of more than 900 persons, according to Mrs. Janet Hagnauer of the Happy Strings Parents and Boosters group, sponsors of the show.

The public is invited to attend and tickets, costing $2 each for adults and $1 for children under 16, are available from Happy Strings members, parents and boosters.

A single ticket entitles patrons to attend both the concert and social.

Specializing in Southeastern European music and dances, the Happy Strings is a song and dance performing group of Quind-City area children.

Their musical director, Tom Kelam, of Arnold, Mo., is a virtuoso in Yugoslav music, especially music of Croatian origin, and the musical HAPPY STRINGS DANCERS prepare for their appearance at 3 p.m. Sunday in the annual "Afternoon of Strings and Things," sponsored by the Happy Strings Croatian Junior Tamburitza, in the auditorium at Granite City High School South. Guest performers will be from Gary, Ind., and St. Louis. Music, dancing and refreshments will follow at 5 p.m. at the Croatian Home, Madison. First row, Janet Hartman, left, and Kathy Belcoff, second row, from left, Joyce Gusheloff, Mary Niemczyk, Karen Koch and Ann Modrusic. repertoire of the Happy Strings is predominantly Croatian. Kelam is assisted by Linda Lusicek of St. Louis, who arranges the choreography for the various folk dances of Southeastern Europe. In the bi-state metropolitan area, the Happy Strings Junior Tamburitza is one of five children's Yugoslav musical groups that is adding to the St. Louis area's reputation for excellence in the performance of Yugoslav folk music, Mrs. Hagnauer said.

Last January, the Happy Strings performed at the Croatian Junior Cultural Federation's national quarterly meeting in Gary, Ind., where their presentation was widely acclaimed.

The Happy Strings performed in February for the Slavic and Eastern European Friends of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville at SIUE.

Also last month, the youthful musicians and dancers reluctantly declined an in-itation to appear at Grinnell (Iowa) College due to insufficient funds to meet expenses, the parents' representative explained.

Proceeds from Sunday's concert and social will be used for strings, instruments and costume repair and travel expenses, Mrs. Hagnauer noted.

The Gary (Ind.) Junior Tamburitza performance here will be under the direction of Steve Makarewich, with choreography arranged by Peter Mulin.

Tickets also are available at the Croatian Home in Madison. Fifty-year members of the CPU Lodge will be admitted without charge, Mrs. Hagnauer said.

GC women candidates to River Bluffs Council

The slate of officers of the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council to be elected at the council's annual spring meeting, scheduled for April 7, will include two Granite City residents.

Mrs. Doris Volav is nominee for president and currently is serving as council treasurer. She formerly participated in Girl Scout activities, including finance chairman, district chairman, neighborhood chairman, consultant, organizer, troop leader and Day Camp director. Mrs. Volav also has served as treasurer for Wilson School PTA, a Sunday School teacher and president of St. Bartholomew Episcopal Churchwomen.

Selected as a candidate as member-at-large to serve for a three-year term is Mrs. Arline Drinkmeyer, presently a council trainer. She has served in Girl Scouting as a board member, consultant, organizer, director of training, Day Camp director and neighborhood chairman. Mrs. Drinkmeyer is a member of the Business and Professional Women and of St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ.

The spring meeting will take place at Dolack's Restaurant, Fairview Heights, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on April 7. Reservations are due in advance by March 31, according to the River Bluffs office.

Cost of the luncheon is $3.50 and is not limited to delegates. During the meeting everyone will be divided into interest groups and a variety of topics will be discussed, to include training, camp properties, upcoming program events and new finance programs, the council reports.

Another event in conjunction with the Bicentennial year will be a time capsule to be buried at Camp Butterfly on June 6, to include memento of individual troops.

According to the council office each troop may submit no more than one page of a picture of the troop and the roster of all girls; a year's calendar of the 1975-76 events; a page with each girl's name and statement of what she liked best about scouting; a page with each girl's name and her prediction of what scouting will be like in the year 2076, or any other ideas of the troops.

The capsule will be opened in 25 years and displayed at the annual fall council meeting. All mementos are due in the council office by May 15 and should be marked on the envelope "Attention-Time Capsule."

Nu Zeta holds pledge ritual

Mrs. Carla Ashmore entertained the Nu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, in her home last week and also conducted a pledge ritual ceremony for Carol Moerlten, Sharon Case and Libby Bell.

President Mrs. Linda McKechnan presided at the session. She led a discussion on attending a sorority convention on April 4 in Centralia.

Tentative plans were made for a Mother's Day and Founder's Day event.

Others attending were Emily Farnbach, Donna McIlvoy, Shari Smith, Cheryl Barton and Judy Haven.

The rocker that helps you get up.

Only $79.95

A NEW CONCEPT FROM TELL CITY

Why didn't they think of it before? All of us know someone who struggles to get up from a low-seated rocker or chair. Someone too proud to ask for help. Now, Tell City has built the help right into this High 'n Easy Rocker. Runners are flatter, have a backstop. So it won't rock back as far. Won't tilt forward when you put weight on the arms. You can push going up, brake going down. Seat is higher, too, so you don't go down as far. It's comfortable, too—with a high back to lean your head against. And curved spindles to fit your spine. Just right for less active people who want a rocker that's less active. Buy it for someone you love. Even if that someone is you.

The High 'n Easy Rocker

- Professionally engineered for less active people
- Extra-sturdy construction.
- Made of Solid Hard Rock Maple.

ARTHUR W. MOORE

GARY NOVICH

Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore, 75, Madison, is a candidate in the Democratic primary election March 16. He seeks to continue as the District 24 member of the Madison County Board.

A Madison resident 55 years, the Rockwood, Ill., native served on the Madison County Board of Supervisors for 20 years and has been a member of the successor County Board for over three years.

During the two decades he served on the Board of Supervisors, Moore also was supervisor of Venice Township (Venice-Madison area).

A longtime member and Chairman of the Road and Bridge (highway) committee, he has been instrumental in emphasizing right-of-way acquisition for extension of Maryville Road here.

Moore also has been active on the Land Use Committee and on the Law Enforcement Commission. He is a former state highway policeman and former state license investigator for the Illinois secretary of state.

A World War II veteran, Moore served in the Navy for three years, half of that time overseas. He is a member of Amvets Post 204, Ains Shrine, Venice-Madison, American Legion Post 307, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1360, Elks Lodge 1063 and the Madison Lions.

He resides at 1609 Elizabeth Street with his wife, Elsie.

Navy exercise

Navy Fire Control Technician Third Class Jeffrey Alan Schleicher, 19, son of Michael Schleicher, 240 Hemlock Ave., and Mrs. Carol Schleicher, 2638 E. 24th St., and whose wife Rhonda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Peterson 4115 Melrose Ave., is taking part in a five-nation naval exercise off the California coast as crewmember of the guided missile cruiser USS Chicago.

Named "Valiant Heritage" to commemorate America's Bicentennial, the exercise involves 41 ships, 200 aircraft and more than 18,000 men.

The eleven-day exercise, including forces from Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom and the U. S., is designed to test the ability of the allied navies in joint operation.

The maneuvers will include missile firings at the Pacific Missile Test Center, Point Mugu, Calif., carrier operations, underway replenishment, communications and gunnery tests. A 1974 graduate of Granite City High School, he joined the Navy in August 1974.

Wilkins backs Howlett

Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr., professor emeritus, retired, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, former county superintendent of Madison County schools and former Illinois superintendent of public instruction, this week endorsed Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett for governor of Illinois in the Democratic primary on March 16.

"I have known Mike Howlett for more than 30 years. Mike Howlett brought business concepts to the offices of state auditor and secretary of state.

"In my opinion, Howlett was one of the most outstanding state auditors in the history of the state. He has implemented the same principles of government to bring about efficiency and economy in operating the office of secretary of state," Wilkins asserted.

"I am proud to endorse Mike Howlett for governor and I will support and actively campaign for him."

State election board to monitor primary voting

Franklin J. Lunding Jr., chairman of the State Board of Elections, has announced that special communication systems have been established for Tuesday's primary (March 16) to respond to citizen, candidate and election authority inquiries and complaints.

"Phone lines will be open from 5:30 a.m. election day until all elections are secured that evening," Lunding said.

"There are approximately 11,000 precincts in Illinois and 35,000 judges of election will be responsible for the conduct of the election."

According to Lunding, the State Board of Elections is working in a coordinated program with local election authorities, local law enforcement officials, political parties, and election watchdog groups to handle election day problems.

In the primary election in 1974 close to two million people voted throughout the state and an even greater voter turnout is expected for the March 16 primary.

Credits help to pay income tax

By FRANK R. RICE
President, Southern Chapter,
Illinois CPA Society

Fifth in a series of articles on 1975 income taxes.

Having identified the adjustments, deductions and exemptions that will save money on your 1975 income taxes, now we can zero in on the credits.

Credits are effective tax-cutters because, rather than reduce the income subject to taxation, they apply dollar for dollar, to the tax itself.

Thus, a five dollar credit is the equivalent of five dollars in your pocket.

For example, if you bought a new home in 1975, you may qualify for a credit of five percent of the purchase price up to $2,000. It has to have been a new house built or started before last March 26 and you must have bought it at the lowest price at which it was offered since last Feb. 28. In addition, the contract must have been signed before the end of 1975.

Any part of the home buyer's credit not applied against 1975 income taxes is lost; there is no refund of excess amounts. So, if you have a tax credit of $1,000, for example, and your income tax is only $750, $250 of the credit is wasted. Use IRA form 5405 to compute.

If during 1975 you bought a car or other asset used even partly in business, you may be in line to get back a pro-rated share of the cost, up to 10 percent, as a business investment credit. Ask for IRS form 3468.

Another credit—which, if you prefer, can be taken as a deduction, instead—is the one for political contributions.

This credit has been doubled and now equals one half the contribution up to $25 (50 on a joint return).

Those who take the standard deduction instead of itemizing will, of course, have to claim the political contribution as a credit.

Those who itemize and thus have a choice will be guided by their income bracket; higher income taxpayers generally gain more from taking the deduction.

Figure it both ways to decide which is better for you.

Overwithholding of Social Security taxes, a common occurrence for those holding two jobs, creates a credit that should be applied to the income taxes you still owe.

Any excess can be applied to your 1976 estimated tax or returned to you as a refund. The same is true of any excess income taxes that may have been withheld from your paychecks.

Income taxes paid to a foreign government can be treated either as a deduction or a credit. IRS form 1116, which is used to report it, will help you decide which way to go.

If you used large quantities of gasoline and lubricating oil in machines other than highway motor vehicles—boats, tractors, mowers or saws—it might be worthwhile to claim the credit of two cents a gallon on the gasoline, six cents a gallon on the oil. Use IRS form 4136.

For taxpayers in lower income brackets, far and away the most important credit is the one on earned income, a sort of negative income tax.

For a qualified taxpayer (one who maintains a household in the U.S. that includes at least one of the taxpayer's dependent children), the credit is 10 percent of earned income up to a credit of $400 on income of $4,000.

After the $4,000 income level is passed, the taxpayer begins to lose the credit at the same 10 percent rate, so that when income reaches $8,000, the credit is gone.

Those taxpayers whose earned income credit is greater than their income tax get a "refund" check for the difference.

One final type of credit is so difficult to compute, few persons who are not tax professionals attempt it on their own: the retirement income credit. Designed to give a break to retirees who do not enjoy full Social Security or other retirement benefits.

If you are a retired U.S. citizen and have had at least $600 of earned income for each of ten years prior to this year, and you are filing your own tax return unassisted, Internal Revenue suggests that you simply supply the information called for on Schedule R; the IRS will then compute your retirement income credit for you.

Fine arts festival

Three Midwestern groups, a student art exhibit, and a Guatemalan guitarist will be among the first week's artists when the fourth annual Fine Arts Festival at Belleville College begins on March 24.

This year's festival, again jointly sponsored by the Department of Fine Arts, Foreign Language and Speech and the Student Activities Committee, will conclude on April 7 after having presented nearly 50 different cultural events, ranging from lectures on unidentified flying objects and judo demonstrations to symphonic music, ballet and ceramics displays.

Among the Midwestern groups are a choral group from Illinois State University, which will perform at 8 p.m. March 25 at Zion Lutheran Church; a readers' theater group from the SIUC center of oral interpretation at 8 p.m. March 28 in the BAC theater; and, returning to the festival after an enthusiastic reception last year, the Missouri Concert Ballet on the morning of March 31.

Ron Hudson, Guatemalan guitarist who has released his second album of Spanish and classical guitar music and has been performing in Europe and Latin America for the past three years, will give his recital of Flamenco, classical, folk and popular music at 10 a.m. March 29 in the BAC theater.

Another asked to return because of excitement sparked by his appearance last year is the mime artist, Nikolai. His show will take place at 8 p.m. on March 30 in the theater.

A feature of the festival will be lectures, demonstrations and exhibits of painting, drawing, ceramics and sculpture. From the beginning of the festival to the end, an exhibit of artwork by BAC students will be continued on the second floor of the main campus building.

Local choral, vocal and instrumental groups, local actors and artists and local speakers, as in the past, will make up the heart of the festival. Several nationally known music groups also are being engaged.

ADLAI NOMINATED

Adlai E. Stevenson became presidential contender for the second time as Democratic National Convention nominated him in Chicago on Aug. 16, 1956.

Calvo among endorsements by Local 67

United Steelworkers Local 67 announced Tuesday its endorsement of Horace Calvo for election as circuit judge in the Third Judicial District. Calvo now is serving as circuit judge by appointment.

In a statement issued by James Kelahan, president of the local, the union local said, "Calvo appears clearly the most qualified candidate, having been an attorney for well over 20 years, eight years as an assistant attorney general and having served seven years in the Illinois General Assembly making the laws."

"He is well respected by business and labor. We urge everyone to keep Mr. Calvo as circuit judge."

Local 67 also endorsed one of its own members, Herbert "Junior" Milton for re-election as County Board member of the 22nd District. "Milton is one of the best working members of the board and he deserves re-election," the Local 67 endorsement said.

Other candidates endorsed by the union are: Michael Howlett for governor, Neil Hartigan for lieutenant-governor, Cecil Partee for attorney general, Alan Dixon for secretary of state and Democratic convention delegate, Mike Bahall for comptroller, Nicholas Byron for state's attorney, Ronald Lucas for recorder of deeds, Willard Portell for circuit clerk, and Charles Heister for Democratic convention delegate.

"We wholeheartedly endorse and support Sam Vadala for state senator, Sam Wolf and Joe Lucco for state representative and we urge their election as well as all the candidates endorsed by 23rd District COPE-APL-CIO," the union said.

Local 67 represents 1,150 employees at Granite City Steel.

CENTENNIAL AND BICENTENNIAL are both being celebrated by members of the Illinois Bell Telephone office here. Mrs. Rosalie Stern, left, presents Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler with a framed telephone book cover marking both the nation's 200th birthdate and the March 10, 1876, famous words by Alexander Graham Bell said over the first telephone. At right is Mrs. Janice Mondy, a business office supervisor. As America celebrates its 200th birthday, the telephone is 100 years old.

$238,592 Venice town budget posted; hearings on March 30

Four budget bills for the 1976-77 year, totaling $238,592, have been approved by the Venice Town Board of Auditors and placed on public display at the town offices, Fifth Street and Madison Avenue. The new total is $4,735 less than the combined budgets last year.

The new budgets include appropriations for the general town fund amounting to $96,592, an increase of $4,940 over the 1975-76 budget of $90,652, and a new general assistance budget of $87,550, down $5,800 from the previous appropriation of $93,350.

For road and bridge purposes, the board approved a new budget of $28,000, down $6,495 from last year's appropriation of $34,495. The fourth budget consisted of a separate appropriation of $27,450 for the Illinois Municipal Retirement account, an increase of $2,600 over last year's budget of $24,850.

A public hearing on the road and bridge fund budget will be held by the Town Board at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 30, at the town office, followed at 7:30 p.m. by a public hearing on the other three budget measures. The Town Board will act on the budgets in the annual town meeting which will be held this year on Tuesday, April 13, at the Venice City Hall.

These include $4,880 for the salary of the supervisor, $4,880 for salary of the town clerk, $8,000 for the salary of the assessor, $5,000 for the collector, $4,200 for the highway commissioner, $5,000 for town board members, $7,000 for the supervisor of general assistance, $600 for the town treasurer, $200 salary for the health officer and $22,000 for additional personnel.

The town fund budget also appropriates $3,300 for travel expenses, $3,300 for legal services and $4,000 for bonding costs. Interest payments of $1,800 on tax anticipation warrants also is included.

The general assistance fund budget includes projected expenditures of $14,900 for salaries, excluding those of elected officials; $11,000 for medical care, $2,500 for utilities for clients, $4,500 for rentals and $38,000 for food. Also included is $9,000 for institutional care for assistance clients, along with $1,500 for payments to convalescent homes and $2,000 for contingencies.

The road and bridge appropriation includes $4,760 in expenditures for administrative purposes; $10,800 for road maintenance costs which include $3,000 for machinery rental and $7,000 for materials, and $11,295 for oiling of roads.

State comptroller seeks re-election

Unopposed in the Republican primary March 18, George W. Lindberg is seeking a second term as Illinois state comptroller.

He has served as a fiscal "watchdog" and has warned repeatedly against what he regards as disastrous revenue policies of the present governor's administration.

As an example, he spoke out in December 1976, reporting that income tax refunds totaling $3.5 million to 13,000 Illinois citizens and 1,132 corporations were being delayed by Governor Walker's agencies as part of a widespread attempt to hide the fact that the state lacks the money to pay its bills promptly.

Vouchers authorizing the tax refunds were being held in the Department of Finance, he said.

Two of the vouchers, totaling $1 million to 3,313 individuals and 495 businesses, had been held by the DPF since Nov. 26, Lindberg asserted.

"In normal times, it takes the Department of Finance only a day or two to forward requests for income tax refund payments from the governor's agencies to the comptroller's office."

"Under normal financial conditions, the tax refund checks would be mailed on the afternoon of the day following receipt of the vouchers directing payment by the governor."

"The delays in making these income tax refunds to thousands of Illinois citizens are only one symptom of the present situation in which the state cannot pay all its bills on time," Lindberg said.

"In addition to these income tax refund delays, there are payments to medical providers totaling at least $20 million being held up by the Department of Public Aid."

"Also, there are 24,000 senior citizens and disabled persons who are not receiving $3.6 million owed them under the state's circuit breaker tax refund program."

"The telephones in the comptroller's office are carrying to us the cries of anguish from Illinois people who want to be paid the money they have coming."

"But the comptroller must tell these people that the governor has not practiced the economy he preaches, and that is why the governor's agencies are not able to pay the bills on time. The money is not there."

"If the governor submitted bills for payment, and the money was there in the treasury, we would be able to pay them within two working days," Lindberg said.

Lindberg, of Crystal Lake, gained prominence as auditor of the state's financial disclosure law for public officials, it was noted during his successful 1972 campaign.

The 44-year-old McHenry County native was first elected to the Illinois House of Representatives in 1966, after serving for 13 years as legal counsel and vice-president for the internationally known investigative firm of John E. Reid & Associates in Chicago.

His interest in politics developed during his employment with the Reid firm when he was called on to testify before numerous legislative bodies as an expert on financial fraud.

While with Reid, Lindberg conducted more than 5,000 investigations of fraud and lectured on the subject at leading universities in the U.S., Australia and South Africa.

The son of a leading McHenry County physician and surgeon, the late Dr. A. V. Lindberg, he attended Crystal Lake elementary and secondary schools.

He earned his bachelor of science degree from Northwestern University in 1964 and his law degree from that university's School of Law in 1967. He was admitted to the practice of law in 1968.

During his first term in the General Assembly, he sponsored a number of measures which have been enacted into law.

Among these were the Illinois Public Demonstration Act and legislation creating the Department of Corrections.

The bill to establish the agency brought about a long sought separation of law enforcement from the penal system because of the fundamental differences of the two functions.

It also provided for state supervision of the 160 jails in Illinois and for a full-time Parole and Pardon Board.

In 1966, Lindberg was named to chair a special House committee to investigate the Illinois judiciary in the wake of disclosures of alleged judicial impropriety by two Illinois Supreme Court justices. During the investigation, the two justices in question resigned.

Even though the Supreme court later ruled that the committee had no authority to investigate the judiciary, Lindberg took his committee's recommendations before the Constitutional Convention.

As a result, the 1970 Constitution reflects some of these recommendations, including the provision mandating the legislature to provide economic disclosure legislation for all three branches of government.

Lindberg was the House sponsor of the 1969 law which exempts household furnishings and one automobile from the personal property tax.

That year, he sponsored more than 20 pieces of legislation proposed by the Illinois State Attorneys' Association to bring about reforms in Illinois

More fire hydrants in Long Lake area

Under a $10,000 federal revenue sharing grant given last year by Nameoki Township to the Long Lake Fire Protection District Board of Trustees, 13 new fire hydrants have been installed, the district has assumed the payments on two private hydrants and plans are being made for installing three to five more new hydrants, the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors was told Monday night.

New fire hydrants are being planned for the middle of Westmoreland Drive, on Dawn Avenue, and on Cheshire Court, and a study is being made whether more hydrants are needed in the Miracle Manor area, the auditors were told.

It was noted the official request to the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. to have the hydrants installed can not be made until a meeting of the fire trustees is called and the new hydrants are approved.

PLANS FOR OBSERVANCE of American Youth Art Month are reviewed by Mayor Paul Schuler, seated, with B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools, left and Eugene L. Alassi, consultant of art education for Granite City School district. Art work by young people in the schools during March will be directed toward interpretation of early American history, Alassi said. Mayor Schuler issued a proclamation for Art Month and called upon all citizens to join in saluting art education in the schools in Granite City.

Earns diploma as nurse anesthetist

Walter McDonald, 28, Iris, Granite City, received his diploma from the Barnes Hospital School of Nurse Anesthesia in ceremonies during the weekend at the hospital.

McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McDonald, of Charleston, Ill., was among 11 students completing the two-year curriculum. The school at Barnes is the only one in St. Louis and trains many of the nurse anesthetists staffing medical facilities in the Midwest.

McDonald is a 1965 graduate of Charleston High School and received his nurse training at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He also served in the U. S. Army and is an associate member of the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists.

RECIPE ACCOMPANIST Ron J. Matson, Granite City, a graduate assistant in music at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, provided piano and harpsichord accompaniment as Miss Lynda Kay Kenney, a mezzo soprano, presented her junior voice recital at the campus, it was announced this week.

criminal law. Among these were bills to expedite criminal proceedings, without denying due process, by permitting a state's attorney to proceed by information rather than indictment in specified criminal cases.

Following his chairmanship of the judiciary investigating committee, Lindberg introduced and led the fight for the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act which went into effect July 1, 1972.

He received the "outstanding legislator award from the Illinois Small Businessmen's Association and the Jaycees' "distinguished service award."

Vice-president and legal counsel for the Special Agents Association, he also held memberships in the National District Attorneys Association, National Municipal League, Illinois State Bar Association, Illinois Chiefs of Police Association, American Polygraph Association and the McHenry and Chicago Bar Associations.

Continuing operations profitable

Post Corporation earned $1,586,217, or $1.82 a share, from continuing operations in 1975. This compares with $1,290,280 or $1.47 a share from those operations the previous year.

However, Post Corp. said its write-off of its investment in All-Star Insurance Corp. during the year caused Post as a whole to lose $889,853, or $1.14 per share for the year. This compares with a 1974 loss of $217,335 or 25 cents a share.

On Oct. 30, 1975, Post transferred its 99.8 per cent ownership of All-Star to Stellar Investment Corp., receiving no compensation in return.

All-Star, which Post acquired in 1969, had suffered heavy underwriting losses in 1974 and 1975. Stellar invested new capital in All-Star and has continued its operation.

Post said earnings of its newspaper division were about even with the previous year. While most of the newspapers increased their profits, these were offset by a loss at the firm's Milwaukee suburban papers, which were expanded during the year to a circulation of over a quarter-million.

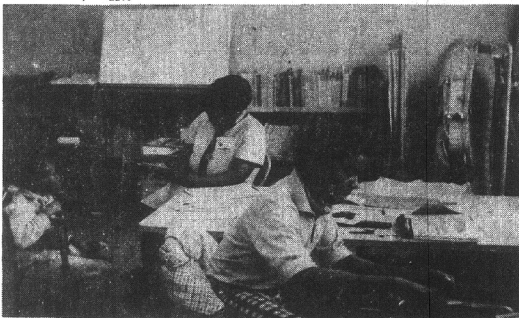

The corporation said its Boston suburban newspapers also lost money, about the same as in 1974. Post launched a new daily paper there two years ago.

Post's increase in operation profit came almost exclusively from its broadcast stations — four television and three radio stations — which increased their profits by 45 per cent over 1974.

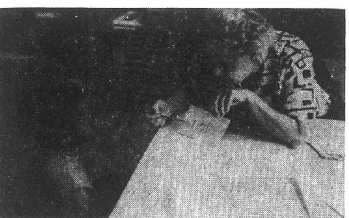

Post said its Wisconsin television stations — at Green Bay and Eau Claire — showed the greatest increases. All three radio stations also reported improved results.

Lower net interest costs also contributed to the firm's better results from continuing operations. This expense item was $487,678 in 1975, compared with $684,147 a year earlier.

Youth shot in the neck

Billy Welch, 17, of 1251 Oriole St., Venice, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital this week after he was shot in the neck with a pellet gun.

Welch is reported in good condition. According to a police report, Welch was playing football with some other boys on the corner of Brown and Oriole streets when a carload of other youths drove by and fired at them.

RUNAWAYS APPREHENDED
University police picked up two runaway juvenile girls at Tower Lake Apartments on the SIUE campus during the weekend. One of the girls, a 16-year-old who could give no home address, was taken to the Madison County Detention Home in Edwardsville. The other, 15, was returned to the custody of her mother, who lives at Holiday Shores. Police said juvenile drug charges will be filed against the pair, and charges also are being considered against occupants of the apartment where the girls were arrested.

It's Time To Join Our Club

Nowadays, when everything seems to be changing or disappearing, isn't it nice to know that there is still a store where some of the old rules still apply?

A store where people say "Please" and "Thank You" and really mean it.

Where Service and Quality are never compromised or set aside.

Where you're helped by competent sales people who are knowledgeable and anxious to please you.

Where you're fitted properly and to your total satisfaction.

I'll never forget what my father said: "Anybody can make a garment cheaper — not everybody can make it better!"

If these things are still important to you, as they are to me, it's time to join my club.

Sincerely
Herb Schermer

ACT NOW... Start a Tax-Saving Trust Fund BIG ENOUGH To Retire On

If you are self employed, now there's a way for you to build a meaningful retirement fund of your own. You can deposit with us each year, AND DEDUCT FROM YOUR GROSS INCOME, as much as $7,500 (or 15% of your annual income—whichever is less).

Earnings on your fund will compound TAX-FREE, and you won't pay any taxes until payments are made to you.

Thanks to this new, favorable tax treatment, you can build a LARGER RETIREMENT FUND—far larger than you could accumulate through investments of equal value earning an identical return, on which you must pay taxes each year.
